SS. PRINCESS PATRICIA

B.C.'s Premier Byron I. Johnson watches the launching of Ss. Princess Patricia at the yards of the Fairfield Shipbuilding Co., Govan, Scotland. With Premier Johnson, left, in the centre group, are Countess of Elgin and C. G. Ramsey, superintendent engineer, Atlantic service, Canadian Pacific Steamships Ltd. Looking over Mr. Johnson's shoulder is D. B. Prentice, assistant superintendent engineer for the C.P.R.'s B.C. Coast Service, Victoria. The new 6,000-ton Ss. Princess Patricia, with her sister ship Princess Marguerite, launched earlier at Govan, will be in service on the B.C. coast next summer.

Russian Imperialism Bad As Czars'--Bevin

LONDON (AP)—Foreign Secretary Bevin today called the Russians expansionists—"as imperialist as the czar ever was."

"We seek no power," he told the National Union of Manufacturers. "We have no desire to upset their system, but we must resist any attempt on their part to destroy our liberties."

Of Britain herself, Bevin said: "We have ceased to be an imperialist race. We dominate nobody. We accept equality in religion, in color, in status. And in the areas which we still control we are directing our energies toward independence and self government."

"If we cannot fix agreement with our neighbors," he said, "at least let them keep on their side of the garden wall.

"It will not advocate any interference, but equally, if they seek to disturb us then they must be annoyed if we are upset at their intervention and we defend ourselves."

Bevin told the manufacturers' annual meeting "the key to whether we shall have peace for 100 years is in the great problem of the Indian Ocean—the Middle East, Pakistan, India and Ceylon."

Bevin spoke against the background of a current conference here of leaders of the British Commonwealth—among them those of the three eastern countries he named.

St. Laurent Denies King To Quit Office At Once

Rt. Hon. Louis St. Laurent, Acting Prime Minister of Canada, denied on his arrival in London today that his ailing chief, Prime Minister King, would immediately retire.

Mr. St. Laurent arrived by air to replace the Prime Minister at the conference here of Commonwealth leaders. There had been reports that the Prime Minister, now confined to bed with a condition of the blood circulation, would retire on the arrival in London of the Acting Prime Minister.

These reports are "untrue," St. Laurent said. "If he retires in London it would mean there would be no government in Canada until I returned to the Dominion, and the Canadian people would not want to recall me while the conference is on."

When the Prime Minister's physician advised the 73-year-old Canadian leader withdraw from the Commonwealth conference, it was decided that Mr. St. Laurent would fly to London to take over as Canada's representative. He left Canada Wednesday night and arrived in a rainstorm here this morning.

He issued the denial, then proceeded to the Dorchester Hotel to confer with his chief, confined to bed in his hotel suite.

After a short visit, Mr. St. Laurent said, "I was delighted to see that Mr. King already has benefited from his enforced rest."

"I had to insist on getting away as I did not want to be the occasion of hindering Mr. King's rest. I must say he looked very well and he impressed me as most cheerful."

The Prime Minister's staff earlier had reported that he had spent a "restful" night and that his condition continued good. It is not yet known how long he will be confined to bed.

At the conference itself, intense activity was going on among individual delegations on matters relating to their particular national interests. Plenary sessions will be resumed Monday with discussion on the possibility of improving Commonwealth inter-communication.

Tuesday the session on foreign affairs, initiated Tuesday by Foreign Secretary Bevin, who reviewed the situations in the Middle and Far East, will be resumed. The timetable was revised to permit St. Laurent to take part in the talks on foreign affairs.

Wednesday the Commonwealth leaders will discuss defence.

Unannounced Visit

VANCOUVER (CP)—Two young girls, missing from North Vancouver and suburban Richmond since Tuesday, returned to their homes Wednesday night, police reported today. The girls, 11-year-old Patsy Olsen and 15-year-old Clarice Shortridge, had visited Vancouver, the police report said.

Condemns W.I.U.

TORONTO (CP)—The eighth annual convention of the Canadian Congress of Labor will be asked to condemn the Woodworkers Industrial Union as a "pathetic imitation of a real trade union." The union was formed by the British Columbia District Council of the International Woodworkers of America after the council's recent secession from its international affiliation.

Jewels Vanish

SOUTHAMPTON, England (AP)—Police questioned members of the Queen Elizabeth's crew today after the liner's return from New York about the disappearance of $8,000 worth of jewels. The loss was reported by Lady Cunliffe-Owen, wife of wealthy Sir Dudley Cunliffe-Owen.

I.T.U. In Contempt

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—Judge Luther M. Swygert today ruled that the International Typographical Union is in contempt of court because it has insisted on a closed shop in its contracts with newspapers. The judge, who issued an injunction against the printers' union last March 27, did not penalize the union, but ordered it to prove within 10 days that it is abiding by his injunction, based on the Federal Taft-Hartley Labor Relations Act.

Blame Israeli For Failing To Protect Murdered Mediator

PARIS (AP)—Britain and China demanded in the Security Council today that Israel report quickly on what progress has been made in her investigation of the assassination of Count Folke Bernadotte.

The two powers asked in a draft resolution that Israel also indicate "the measures taken with regard to negligence on the part of officials or other factors affecting the crime."

John J. MacDonald, United States Consul and chairman of the three-power Consular Truce Commission in Jerusalem, reported to the council that Montreal-born Dr. Bernard Joseph, Jewish Military Governor, led "a deliberate Jewish campaign to discredit the truce commission and the acting mediator," Dr. Ralph Bunche of the United States.

He said this campaign is developing along lines of the attack launched against Count Bernadotte, the mediator, before he was shot to death in Jerusalem last month.

Bunche himself charged before the council that Jewish authorities took insufficient measures to protect Bernadotte.

The two-power resolution called on Jews and Arabs to co-operate in the investigation of truce violations and to carry out in the field all agreements reached through truce observers.

Arabs and Jews also would be obliged to "take reasonable measures to ensure the safety and safe conduct of the truce supervision personnel."

Bunche earlier told the council six persons already have been killed trying to maintain the peace and that some field commanders in Palestine do not carry out truce observer recommendations.

"It unquestionably was a well-planned, carefully-timed assassination aimed directly at the life of the mediator," Bunche, now acting mediator, told the council.

He said Israeli authorities have given him no official report on the progress of the investigation of the murder. Bernadotte was killed in Jerusalem Sept. 17 by a group from the Jewish Stern Gang.

Britain and France were reported ready to submit a resolution calling for tougher United Nations action against Jews and Arabs breaking the truce.

The council earlier had voted, 8 to 0, to consider means of more strict enforcement of the truce. Syria, the Ukraine and Russia abstained, with Syria and Russia contending Bunche's report contained nothing new.

General Strike Threatened By Communists In Italy

ROME (CP)—The Communist labor boss, Giuseppe di Vittorio, threatened today to call a general strike if the Italian government fails to satisfy demands of government employees.

About 1,000,000 government workers struck today for most of the working day to back wage and other demands.

Vittorio addressed a mass meeting of government workers. "If the government does not accept state employees' requests, all 7,000,000 General Confederation workers will strike to support their demands," he declared.

The General Confederation of Labor is Communist-led. General strike action by it would cover every labor category and could paralyze Italy.

Today's strike was designed as a show of strength, but the strikers were careful not to anger the public. Railway workers halted only two hours—between 10 a.m. and noon—and customs workers also stayed out only for a two-hour period. Both groups left skeleton staffs on the job.

Although it had been announced previously that telephone service would be maintained, a Rome operator replied: "We are on strike" when asked to take a call for Milan.

Strong police forces appeared on the streets of Rome an hour after the strike began.

Last Link Between Eastern, Western Berlin Collapsing

Start War On Mice Found To Hamper B.C. Reforestation

The forestry department is all-out on a mice trapping campaign.

The object is to discover when the mice population is at its lowest ebb so that the department can start planting Douglas fir seeds.

Mice have a weakness for Douglas fir seeds, according to A. Orr-Ewing, a forestry economist. They eat thousands of seeds a day.

In the past, he said, it has been a race to see if the department could plant faster than the mice could eat the seeds.

The mice won. Laboratory tests, he explained, revealed a mouse could eat 300 seeds a day. The deer-mouse appeared to be the worst offender.

He also said the department was now considering coating the seeds in order to make them less appetizing for mice.

BERLIN (AP)—A Communist spokesman predicted that Berlin's central government, last link between the eastern and western sectors of the divided city, would fall to pieces soon.

The spokesman, Karl Maron, made this prediction a few hours after a clash Wednesday between Communists and non-Communists of the city's magistrate (executive department).

A Communist official who was discharged by the city government last week attended a session in the meeting hall in the Soviet sector Wednesday. When the official, Waldemar Schmidt, chief of the city labor department, refused to leave, the non-Communist members walked out and resumed their meeting in a British sector building.

Schmidt and two other Communist magistrate members remained in the Soviet sector hall.

Later, Maron asserted: "The complete split-up of the Berlin city government will in all probability follow."

The city's assembly, or legislative council, already has split up. The anti-Communist members now meet in the British sector, where the Communist members refuse to join them. The anti-Communists moved out after the violent demonstrations late in August.

T.L.C. Re-elects Percy Bengough For Seventh Term

PERCY BENGOUGH

Percy Bengough today was re-elected by acclamation as president of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada for the seventh term.

Delegates immediately following the election began to sing "For he's a jolly good fellow."

A veteran machinist from Vancouver, Mr. Bengough was the only nominee for the office.

"Thanking the delegates for the support given him Mr. Bengough said he planned to carry out congress policies "regardless of any pressures that may be brought to bear on me."

J. W. Buckley of Ottawa was also re-elected by acclamation as secretary-treasurer. He is a delegate of the Ontario Federation of Labor.

James A. Whitebone, Saint John, N.B., a delegate of the International Alliance of Theatrical Stage Hands and Motion Picture Machine Operators of United States and Canada, was re-elected vice-president for the marine provinces.

The new vice-president for Quebec is Elphege Beaudoin of Verdun, delegate for the Quebec Federation of Labor. He succeeds J. A. D'Aoust of Hull who declined to serve following his nomination.

The vice-president for Ontario, William Jenoves, president for many years of the Toronto Trades and Labor Council, was returned.

In the first vote of the election, Carl E. Berg of Edmonton, was re-elected vice-president for the prairie provinces. He beat out J. McDuff of Brandon, 400 to 331. Mr. Berg is a representative of the International Hod Carriers, Building and Common Laborers' Union.

Showler Elected B.C. Vice-President In Hottest Battle

Sharpest battle in the election of officers of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada developed here today over the naming of the British Columbia vice-president, but Birt Showler of Vancouver won handily.

Mr. Showler, a veteran trade unionist who is president of the Vancouver, New Westminster and District Trade and Labor Council, succeeds Alex Gordon, Vancouver, of the United Fishermen and Allied Workers' Union. While nominated, Mr. Gordon declined to stand for re-election.

Other nominees were: W. M. Black, Vancouver Hospital Employees; Tom Alsbury, B.C. Teachers' Federation, and C. E. Sturgeon, Amalgamated Association of Street Electric Railway and Motor Coach Employees of America.

Mr. Alsbury withdrew.

The result of the vote was: Showler, 496; Black, 126; Sturgeon, 99.

Leaks Plugged; Soviets Admit Trouble Caused

FRANKFURT (AP)—The Western Allies tightened tonight their counter blockade of the Russian zone of Germany. Eleven new regulations were issued to German officials.

The Russians acknowledged publicly last Sunday that the counter-blockade was causing economic troubles in their zone. Ruhr coal and steel and machine products from western Germany were among main products cut off from the Soviet area after the Russians had blockaded Berlin in June.

A U.S. and British announcement said that, "although the flow (of goods to the east) was greatly curtailed, leakages exist."

German authorities were told to do all possible to stop goods from the American-British zones reaching the Soviet area. They were given authority to seize all goods reaching the borders without papers and given permission to prosecute the shippers. Goods from the Soviet zone arriving at the British or U.S. zonal boundaries were ordered sent back.

Round-Up Of Soviet Agents In Brazil Nets Over 100

RIO DE JANEIRO (AP)—More than 100 persons have been rounded up in an investigation of alleged Soviet spying in Brazil.

Brazil outlawed the Communist Party and broke relations with the Soviet Union last year.

The latest arrests were in Sao Paulo Tuesday. Twelve persons of Slavic origin were apprehended and several crates of what police called Russian propaganda were seized.

Sao Paulo police announced recently a spy network was being investigated in the southern state of Rio de Grande do Sul and more arrests are expected there. More than 20 have already been picked up there.

An orthodox Russian priest and the Polish scientist, Julius Sznanski, were arrested recently in the southern Brazil farming regions, now under police surveillance. The Polish embassy filed a protest against the detention of Sznanski and he was freed.

Gives Up Wealth To Keep Husband

NEW YORK (AP)—Pretty blonde Mrs. Danise Weiskopf Reid would rather lose her third share of her father's $2,500,000 estate than divorce her husband, her attorney said today.

The attorney, Samson Selig, said that "under no circumstances" would Mrs. Reid meet the provision of her father's will that she divorce Robert H. Reid to be eligible for an annual income estimated at $30,000.

The will of Daniel K. Wieskopf, a distillery executive, directed that she be cut off with only $2,500 a year unless she divorces her husband.

Delay Decision On Margarine Issue

OTTAWA (CP)—The Supreme Court judgment in the test case on the legality of Canada's margarine ban will not be handed down until the end of the month, court sources said today.

It had been expected the decision would be announced next Monday, but a heavy roll of cases before the court has put the date back a week or two.

Baby Hits Back

PARIS (Reuters)—A disgruntled 18-month-old baby boy, annoyed at being spanked by his grandmother, picked up a poker and knocked her unconscious, it was reported Tuesday.

Lumber Firms Charged Less In Canada, Says MacMillan

OTTAWA (CP)—H. R. MacMillan, head of a large west coast group of lumber companies, today told the Prices Commission he felt the restraint of British Columbia mills was a large factor in keeping Canadian lumber prices below the United States level.

He was being examined on prices charged by the H. R. MacMillan Export Co. Ltd., the parent firm, to domestic, British and other buyers. The Canadian prices were substantially lower than either export price.

"So great has been the interest of the B.C. mills in the Canadian market that while the mills are free to charge in Canada as much as in the United States, they are not doing it," Mr. MacMillan said.

UP TO 32 PER CENT

Mr. Dyde calculated that in 1946 the firm's profit of $277,904.63 amounted to a return of 8 per cent on an equity in the company of $3,450,792. In 1947, the $1,625,374 profit was a 32 per cent return on an investment which totaled $5,076,642.

He asked if Mr. MacMillan had anything further to suggest why the consumer should pay a higher price in 1947 than 1946 "in spite of the favorable position of a company which produces a lot of lumber."

Mr. MacMillan said that only 3.5 per cent of the organization's total profits came from the sale of lumber in Canada.

(See story of Wednesday's session of the hearing, Page 18).

It did not result in MacMillan's lumber reaching the domestic consumer any cheaper than other mills' products.

"After losing $75,000 to $100,000 in the pursuit of this ideal, we ceased it and allowed our prices to rise to almost the level established in the open market," he said.

"My experience is that in the open market when the price is going up you can't stop it."

H. A. Dyde, commission counsel, produced calculations from the figures presented for one of the MacMillan subsidiaries, the Canadian White Pine Co. Ltd.

When price controls were removed, the MacMillan firm felt that "it was not in the company's interest that the price of lumber in Canada should be advanced."

"We tried an experiment," he continued. "For two or three months we refrained from letting our prices go to the level at which we were aware lumber was being sold by the industry at large."

"We found that selling to the retailers at lesser prices than other mills was having the effect of increasing the retailers' profits."

Living In The Scandal House At Glen Cove

By
Oksana S. Kasenkina
(Edited by ISAAC DON LEVINE and Copyright, 1948, by King Features Syndicate Inc.)

THE LITTLE Soviet-America in which I lived was mirrored in its various phases at the Glen Cove estate on Long Island of the late J. P. Morgan, the international banker. The place had been acquired shortly before my arrival in the United States as a rest home for Soviet representatives. Within three months it became a source of humiliating news throughout America when the neighbors raised a scandal over the ugly behavior of the visitors to their shores. I was inside Glen Cove during that affair.

Although I had landed in New York in the middle of June, I found that the Soviet school had not completed its courses because of a shortage of teachers. Final examinations were scheduled for July 15, to be followed by graduation exercises for a class of six high school students. Altogether the school at that time had some 100 pupils in all grades. Late in July I was overjoyed to learn that a group of us teachers would be sent to Glen Cove where the children of Soviet officials were in camp. I looked forward to the opportunity as I was anxious to be in the country to study the flora and insects of America.

I Become Nursemaid

NO SOONER had we arrived at the great fenced-in estate on Long Island than we were met by the woman in charge of the children's camp who announced:

"You'll have to take care of a group of little girls," she told us. "Are there no nursemaids here?" I asked. "No," was the blunt answer. I protested that I was a specialist in natural science, that I had planned to conduct seminars in nature study for my students, and start collections of plants and insects.

"No, no," the manager retorted, "forget your plans. We have quite a few tots to take care of, and that's what we brought you here for."

The room in the impressive mansion which I was to share with another teacher would have been ideal for rest. But adjoining it were two dormitory rooms in which 14 little girls were quartered. These were our wards, and the two of us had to serve both as nursemaids and chambermaids to them, from washing their hair to cleaning their bathrooms.

The mothers of the little girls were having the time of their lives, coming and going, and disappearing themselves on the beach where another luxurious house in the neighborhood had been rented by the Soviet authorities to accommodate all the staffs. I had occasion to tell these mothers what I thought of them:

"You, idling aristocrats, you should be ashamed to turn us teachers into nursemaids for your children!" I told them to their faces.

Garden Just Wilderness

WE WERE WARNED to stay on the grounds which, to be sure, were ample enough. "It's best not to go outside the boundaries," was the unmistakable hint given us. My observations mortified me. The famous flower gardens were dying of neglect, the vegetable gardens were unwatered and untended. Poison Ivy was spreading everywhere. Wherever I went for a walk, I came upon empty bottles, dirty cartons and boxes. Garbage littered the grounds.

With dismay I asked myself: "How can our government send such people to represent Russia abroad? And why is it that our top diplomats, from Gromyko down, who spend their week-ends here, tolerate such a disgrace?"

Soon enough the American press discovered the scandalous state of affairs within our domain. Neighbors complained of the pollution of the nearby waters and of the nudist bathing. One of our teachers, a fat woman, came running to me full of excitement. She had been at the beach, the press photographers had descended upon it, and she bragged: "You'll see, my picture will be in the papers tomorrow."

Nudist Sent Back Home

THE PAPERS made the most of another picture, showing an attractive girl from the Amtorg who had been snapped by the photographers in Eve's costume. There were immediate repercussions. The girl lost her job in America and was hustled back to Soviet Russia within a matter of days. A public scandal is something which the uncouth Soviet aristocracy cannot abide. The president of the Amtorg himself was recalled, we heard, because of the incident.

There was no help in our little Soviet America to look after the small children and no attendants to take care of the grounds, but of spies and watchdogs there was no shortage. When I sneaked out with another teacher to go shopping in the village five-and-ten cent store, she looked around and hurried me, "Poskoreye—make it quick!" At the estate itself, when I retired of an evening to work on my specimens, I would find young Communist stalwarts snooping around.

This perennial vigilance, however, did not extend to theft. I was warned upon my arrival at Glen Cove by one of the teachers not to keep more than a few dollars about me. We had no key for the door of our room. Daily there was an uproar about missing valuables, now it was a wristwatch, now it was cash which had been stolen. Everybody was suspicious of all the others. I rebelled at the indignity of our status, for teachers were looked down upon as an inferior caste.

Petty Thief Was Trapped

AT OUR 87th Street school in New York I was plagued with the same vice. There were so many cases in my classes of money and things vanishing from coat pockets and purses that I determined to root out the evil. Several of the students who had become attached to me joined me in a plan to trap the thief. One of the boys hid inside the fireplace when everybody went out for salishenics. Sure enough, the thief appeared and was caught in the act. She was the daughter of a ranking Amtorg official.

This was the beginning of the hounding campaign against me. The father of the culprit threatened me with dire punishment. I was taken to task by our Communist supervisor for exceeding my duties of serving merely as an instructor in certain subjects! When I argued that I regarded moral education as part of my task, he burst out:

"Since when are teachers supposed to be investigators?" After this I was ostracized by the Communists within the Soviet colony. They treated me like a pariah and my loneliness grew deeper than ever.

Churchill Denies Atom Bomb Statement

LONDON (AP) — Winston Churchill denied Wednesday night an American woman's assertion that he had told her last spring Russia had an atom bomb and would have its timing and fusing perfected within a year. Mrs. Theodore Douglas Robinson of Jordanville, N.Y., widow of a former assistant secretary of the U.S. navy, told a luncheon meeting at Ilion, N.Y., the wartime prime minister of Britain had made the statement to her. "That report is without foundation," Churchill told reporters.

U.S. Chiefs In Pacific, Alaska Talk Preparedness

TOKYO (AP)—American commanders in the Pacific and Alaska discussed measures to prevent another Pearl Harbor in a series of "top secret" conferences with Gen. MacArthur which ended today.

The problem of Pacific defenses brought together key officers of the army, navy and air force guarding the north-western and far eastern frontiers of the United States.

Lt.-Gen. Nathan F. Twining of the air force, commanding the Alaska defenses, and Vice-Admiral John L. McCrea, deputy commander of the U.S. Pacific Fleet, met with MacArthur for three days.

Informed sources confined information on the talks to two points:

1. The U.S. commanders discussed with MacArthur practical precautions against the possibility of another surprise attack.

2. The high-ranking officers attained a "fine spirit of co-operation and co-ordination" among the three services.

Agreement to work together in the Pacific followed the general pattern of unified defense set forth by Defence Secretary Forrestal. The Tokyo talks got down to the practical application which must take place in the field in the event of war.

Sources reviewing the conferences made no reference to the first winter amphibious landing attack exercise in the far north. It will be held next February in "the Alaska area," Pacific Fleet headquarters announced Wednesday.

U.S. Estimates On Meat Supplies May Be Overoptimistic

WASHINGTON (AP)—United States government forecasts of a boost in meat supplies, and lower prices, by late 1949 may be overoptimistic.

Made chiefly by the Agriculture Department, these predictions have been based largely on the fact that, at the moment, the relationship between feed prices and livestock prices is favorable for producing meat animals.

This year's record grain crop has pulled down costs of feed, while livestock prices have remained relatively high. But reports from the corn belt, where the bulk of the U.S. meat supply comes from, indicate farmers are not jumping in to expand livestock production as much as the department had expected.

These reports say many farmers fear prices may drop sharply by the time new meat animals can be produced, fattened and marketed.

Few Prisoners Held By Soviets Converted

VIENNA (AP)—Russian attempts to convert Austrian and German war prisoners to communism are "failing miserably," repatriated prisoners said today.

A cross-section of 300 repatriates who arrived here Wednesday told reporters they all had been forced to attend lectures on Marxism which pictured capitalism as declining.

They said the lectures were so

Canadian Industry Urged To Prepare

BRANTFORD, Ont. (CP)—Canadian industry should be prepared to convert to war production at a moment's notice, C. Gordon Cockshutt, president of the Cockshutt Plow Company, said here Wednesday. The former Canadian Chamber of Commerce president warned company branch managers a "shooting war" might break out at any time.

contrary to what they saw around them they were left unconvinced. The lectures, they said, were given both by Russian officers and by Communists from the ranks of the prisoners. At one camp a series of "question-and-answer" evenings was started, but the plan was dropped "because they did not get the right answers to their questions."

Mitchell Boomed At T.L.C. Convention

Federal Labor Minister Humphrey Mitchell apparently is not a very popular man with the Canadian labor movement. At the Trades and Labor Congress convention here Wednesday a message of regret that he was unable to attend the convention was read from Mr. Mitchell, presently overseas.

The message met a barrage of boos. "Let's hope he stays overseas," one delegate said. Other greetings and expressions of good wishes were read from Mr. Mitchell's deputy, Arthur McNamara, and from the Newfoundland Federation of Labor.

French Strike Offensive By Reds Appears On Wane

PARIS (AP)—The French Communist strike offensive appeared to be ebbing today, but the costly coal mine tie-up continued.

Rail traffic was reported almost normal. Throughout the country rail workers were going back to their jobs after a week of sporadic walkouts.

In Paris, taxis reappeared after a week-long driver's strike. In eastern France 40,000 iron miners and metal workers returned after a three-week stoppage. The coal strike remained the biggest problem. The 11-day walkout of 335,000 miners has cost France almost 1,500,000 tons of coal.

No fighting was reported between idle miners and police, but neither were negotiations under way to end the tie-up. Informed labor observers said the Communists, failing to pull off a general rail strike now were concentrating on keeping the coal strike going.

The government continued action against food speculators, in a campaign against high prices, a basic cause of labor unrest. Some 30 black marketers have been arrested in the last three days.

Increased Benefits Will Cost More

Working men in Canada were warned here Wednesday afternoon that as their demands for extension of benefits under the Unemployment Insurance Commission were met the charges for this service would have to be increased.

The warning came from R. J. Tallon, member of the commission and former vice-president of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada, at the congress convention here.

Mr. Tallon said the unemployment insurance fund, which could only be used to pay benefits, now totalled $400,000,000. He urged delegates to make known their desires for amendment and extension of the service.

Chief Of Portuguese Army Sees 'Monty'

LONDON (AP)—Gen. Barros Rodrigues, chief of the general staff of the Portuguese army, conferred today with Field Marshal Viscount Montgomery, recently-named chief of the Western European Alliance's defence committee.

The War Office refused comment. There has been speculation, however, that Gen. Rodrigues and Lord Montgomery would discuss the possibility of linking Portuguese defences to those of the alliance, made up of Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg.

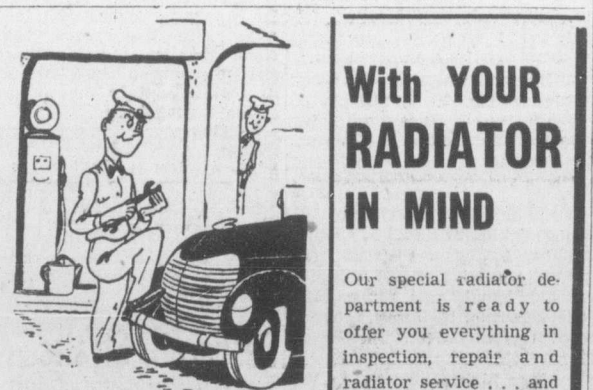

Gen. Rodrigues also saw War Minister Emmanuel Shinwell and Lt. Gen. G. W. R. Templer, deputy chief of Britain's Imperial General staff.

To Pass Sentence Friday On Youths

Frank Cross, John "Blackie" Kane and Earl S. Cooper, all of whom have pleaded guilty to a charge of breaking and entering Balmoral Grocery, 1024 Finlayson Avenue, Oct. 3, were remanded till Friday for sentence in city police court today.

Edward Mohr, charged with the same offence, was remanded till Monday while his counsel, William McIntyre, seeks leave to appeal a juvenile court judgment sending Mohr to police court.

Mohr has made no plan. His case, however, is being taken up by the Family Welfare and Children's Aid Society workers who say they are trying to get the 17-year-old youth tried in juvenile court "in order that his record may not be blotched."

Britain, U.S. Plan To Restore German Ownership In Ruhr

FRANKFURT (Reuters)—A "top secret" Anglo-American plan for restoring ownership titles of the Ruhr's coal and steel industry to the Germans will shortly be put into operation, British and U.S. officials here said today.

At present, ownership of these two vital industries is vested in the commanders-in-chief of the two occupying powers of the bizon. The plan, already approved by the British and U.S. governments, would restore the industries to German ownership while leaving the choice of nationalization or private enterprise open for a future German parliament.

The plan explains the meaning of British Commander Gen. Sir Brian Robertson's statement made during his and Gen. Lucius

The Family Welfare and Children's Aid Society has taken up the case of a 17-year-old boy who faces police charges of breaking and entering a grocery store.

The society has procured a defence counsel for the youth, and is seeking to have the case heard in juvenile court rather than in city court.

The family welfare organization is assisting the boy since he has no relatives or friends to turn to for aid. His father is dead and his mother is ill.

The society is financing the boy's defence through the Community Chest.

VIGILANCE NECESSARY

TWO GREAT CANADIAN LABOR CONVENTIONS, here and in Toronto, are in the throes of a struggle between Communists and democratic trades unionists. A third major development is under way in Vancouver, where the woodworkers' union has been split by a comparable conflict. After many months of behind-the-scenes manoeuvring the issue has come out for thorough debate, and there can be no doubt that Labor in Canada will benefit by the ventilating process. In view of the Canadian situation, it is interesting to note the news item from London indicating that Britain's powerful National Union of Mine Workers is about to stage a showdown on the same issue. Observers predict that when the executive of the N.U.M. meets two weeks from today, Communists who have gained official positions in the organization will be told to "choose between the union and the Communist Party."

A major cause of the present breach in the miners' group arises from a question of policy on shipments of British coal to France. In the latter country the Communists have achieved a measure of success in tying up the national economy with strikes. It is therefore natural, following the well-integrated policy of Moscow, that British Communists should object to shipping coal to France—they see it in the light of strike-breaking, which in this case means obstructing the Kremlin's attempt to grab power in the land of the tricolor.

One salient fact is noticeable in all these Communist manoeuvres, whether they be in Canada or any other part of the globe: they invariably are well organized. Whether it is merely a small minority trying to push through a resolution at a workers' meeting, or a country-wide campaign aimed at seizure of governmental power, the followers of Joseph Stalin are well-drilled in their functions and closely co-ordinated in their actions. Whatever one may think of the mentality of those who fall for the Moscow line of patter, the fact remains that they perform their subversive chores in a regimented manner that often produces success. Herein may be found a lesson for those lovers of freedom and democracy who find their organizations being threatened by Communist infiltration. A militant minority can only impose its will when the majority is indifferent and careless. The point needs no further elaboration.

STRAIGHT TALK ON TAXES

RESIDENTS OF THIS CITY WHO prefer to face the facts will have appreciated the lesson in simple arithmetic presented to the City Council this week by Ald. Aubrey Kent. He has compared current assessment and revenue with those of a decade and a half ago to indicate to his fellow aldermen and citizens in general that Victoria is not collecting enough in taxes and that it cannot get out of debt by borrowing.

His argument lends added point to the case presented in these columns some months ago. On that occasion we noted that "Victoria at present is paying in debt charges an amount that represents approximately 20 per cent of total annual expenditures. That means that one-fifth of the money collected by the city is removed from the sum which the council can apply to current undertakings and the maintenance of existing services."

Mr. Kent advocates civic belt-tightening. The implication in his remarks goes a step further. It suggests that today, while revenues are high and the public is in funds, both assessments and mill rate should be increased. The former, until recent years, has been reduced by the policy of making periodic deductions for obsolescence and depreciation. That trend has now been arrested because replacement costs have increased to a point where existing structures assume greater value despite their age. Furthermore, new construction has broadened the base of taxation on improvements. The tax rate, moreover, has been going up, except this year, when it was pegged arbitrarily at the figure for 1947. Admittedly the rate is the highest on record—45½ mills against 45 in 1946, and 42 in 1945. However, it is interesting to note that collections last year amounted to $4,265 per cent against the 78.38 per cent collection in 1936, when the then record rate of 45 mills was applied. On the other hand, as Ald. Kent pointed out, one dollar now buys nothing like the improvements or services furnished by a like amount a few years ago.

From all these figures it seems apparent that council faces regarding the ability of taxpayers to pay more have not been justified. The switch from financing policy prevailing 10 years ago—when the city cut taxes and did without—to that now being followed, which provides for a substantial amount of improvements through borrowing, increases the debt load. That in turn depreciates the purchasing power of the tax dollar.

Obviously, not all essential work can be paid for out of current revenue. The arena and projected school buildings are cases in point. But the fact must be recognized that deferred payment—that is, the issuance of bonds to be retired by posterity—increases the load. Ald. Kent has suggested a tough-minded method of handling the situation. It would not be necessary to explore his implied suggestion of receivership to apply the policy he advocates. Nor is it necessary to go into the merits of the argument that taxpayers of the future should carry a share of the burden for services which they will enjoy if projects are undertaken now through borrowing. Posterity will have its burdens, just as the present generation is saddled with the costs of commitments undertaken in earlier years.

The plain facts of the matter are that the city now must stand the brunt of inflated costs for work necessary at this time, and that it further depreciates the purchasing power of its tax dollar when it increases debt charges. Ald. Kent has displayed political courage in bringing this unpopular situation to public attention and in suggesting a possible solution for the problems posed. The issue should be given level-headed and resolute attention.

OUR NEIGHBOR'S ELECTIONS

ON THE SECOND DAY OF NOVEMBER the people of the United States will make their choice for the presidency between President Truman and New York's Governor Dewey. Canada and Canadians are naturally interested in the outcome. Economists in this country are asking themselves whether, in the event of the Republican Party candidate's victory, the economic policy in Washington will revert to that of the Smoot-Hawley period. As observers somewhat distant from the scene, and in view of the fact that the economy of the Dominion of Canada is so closely integrated with that of her wealthy neighbor to the south, it might be reasonable to assume that the lessons of the past will be heeded.

Whether Canadians like it or not, and regardless of their sentimental ties with the other members of the British Commonwealth and Empire, the livelihood of approximately 13,000,000 people in this country depends to a substantial extent upon the operation of a policy which determines the exchange of goods across the 49th parallel. From the point of view of external policy, of course, Canada and Canadians observe with satisfaction the fact that the United States is conforming to the exigencies by maintaining a bipartisan arrangement. With the advice and guidance of Republican Senator Arthur Vandenberg—who was one of the most influential delegates of the United States at the San Francisco Conference in 1945, and because Mr. John Foster Dulles has been a power behind the scenes of this bipartisan arrangement—it may be assumed that wise counsels will prevail during the political hiatus between November 3, 1948, and January 20, 1949.

It is not for us, as outsiders, to try to speculate on what may transpire, after next month's elections in the neighboring Republic. We are chiefly concerned on this northern side of the border with the character of the relationships which henceforward shall prevail between official Ottawa and official Washington. It is gratifying to note in the meantime, however, that there is manifesting itself a unity of purpose under innumerable heads between the two peoples. This, in itself, is a happy augury for the future—come good or bad fortune in the international realm.

THEY WANT TO DROP IT

THE WESTERN POWERS WILL SEE IN the Russian request to drop the Berlin dispute from the agenda of the U.N. Security Council a confirmation of the correctness of their decision to bring the matter before the world organization. The Moscow agreement of August 30, which provided for a settlement of the problem "in principle" and which was personally approved by Prime Minister Joseph Stalin, was later stalled by difficulties raised by the Russian military governor in the former Reich capital. Needless to say, his intransigence must have been instigated by the Kremlin—Soviet underlings do not presume to ignore policies laid down "in principle" by the head of their state. The Berlin situation therefore developed into a double-cross by the Russians, and the long series of talks at Moscow was rendered useless.

The West had only two alternatives—to use force or appeal to the body set up by the nations of the world to handle threats to international peace. Admittedly that body could do little more than render a moral judgment, but even that could have a strong influence on Soviet actions. World opinion is still a force. It would appear that the Soviet Union anticipates the trend of that opinion and is unwilling to face its adverse reaction. The present request to have the matter dropped seems to bear this out. But it is an appeal that is hardly likely to meet with success.

WORTHY OF STUDY

THERE IS A LARGE AMOUNT OF practical wisdom in the suggestion made in London by Premier Byron Johnson, that Britain use more British Columbia timber in construction and less steel, thus freeing more of the latter commodity for export to this country. The B.C. government leader estimates that the United Kingdom would be able to sell $50,000,000 worth of steel to Canada annually, while having to buy only $16,000,000 worth of timber to replace it in housing construction. Under such a program, Britain would earn an advantage in needed "hard currency," while the Dominion, and this province in particular, would expand the market for forest products and at the same time receive steel in the form of pipeline and structural members that would find a ready use. The proposition has a simplicity that may not commend it to the powers that be, but to us it seems like an idea worth further investigation.

Admit you don't know, and people forgive you; pretend to know until your ignorance is exposed, and everybody jeers.

Maine May Be Right

By CLYDE BLACKBURN,
Washington Correspondent of The Canadian Press.

IT'S LONG BEEN a part of United States political jargon that "As Maine goes, so goes the nation." This year the saying likely will be right. And that's something of a change in presidential balloting. Maine hasn't been on the right side since 1928 when Republican Hoover went to the White House.

THE NORTHEASTERNMOST state, bordered on the north by Quebec and on the east by New Brunswick, has always held its congressional elections two months before the other states which combine their presidential and congressional ballots.

Thus the Maine congressional elections have been looked upon as a September straw-in-the-wind to indicate how the elections are likely to go elsewhere in November.

WHO FIRST SAID "As Maine goes, so goes the nation," isn't known definitely. Historians agree, however, that it started in 1840 when the Whigs surprised themselves by sending their candidate to Congress and carried on to elect William Henry Harris as President, breaking a long Democratic hold on Maine and the White House.

President Roosevelt's record-breaking series of four Democratic wins in a row made the old Maine saying look silly. Maine was Republican throughout. James Farley is credited with commenting that it should be changed to "As Maine goes, so goes Vermont." That was in 1936 when Roosevelt won every state but those two.

MAINE HAS 'ALREADY' elected its congressional delegation this year—all Republican—including Margaret Chase Smith as senator. On Nov. 2 Maine will have to go to the polls again to vote the presidential ticket. Most observers predict that Republican candidate Thomas E. Dewey will be elected.

States can name their own date for electing members of Congress. Probably because the weather is likely to be more reasonable in September than November, Maine has clung to the September date for elections to Congress and lesser offices.

Dewey Misty

By PETER EDSON from Washington
WITH LESS than three weeks to go before election day, these campaign developments stand out:

Save on the big bipartisan principles of foreign policy, anti-Communism and a few generalities like belief in the future of the great American West, Republican presidential candidate Thomas E. Dewey has yet to say specifically where he stands on most important domestic issues. On his swing across the country he has come out for rain, sunshine, honesty, co-operation, efficiency, reorganization, whatever is good for the nation and all such political pap.

On such a vague and platitudinous platform, Governor Dewey is apparently going to win the election.

PRESIDENT TRUMAN in his campaign for re-election has said exactly where he stands on every conceivable issue, even at the risk of putting his foot in his mouth to do so. You may not like his words. You may not like his ideas. You may not like the way he has in the past tried to carry out his words and ideas. But at least he has made known his principles. This, however, is apparently not enough to get him re-elected.

Jack Kroll of the C.I.O.-P.A.C. thinks Truman can be re-elected if 60,000,000 or more of the 94,000,000 eligible voters get out and register, then get out and vote. The total presidential vote in 1940 was just under 50,000,000. In 1944 it was just under 48,000,000. So it will take an all-time record vote—better than 65 per cent of those eligible—to get the result Kroll and other labor-political action people are hoping and working for.

THE BIGGEST political story of the year is in the once-sold south, where a major political realignment is going on. Save for Truman's dip into Texas, neither of the major party candidates has as yet invaded Dixie. It has been largely a private stamping ground for South Carolina Gov. J. Strom Thurmond, presidential candidate of the States' Rights Party. Henry Wallace has of course been there, but has been egged out.

Governor Thurmond claims he will carry 10 states or more and get 100 electoral votes or more. Five states and 50 electoral votes would be a more accurate estimate. Governor Thurmond admits that if he carries only one state, it will be a victory.

IF THE STATES' Rights Party gets 100 votes, Thurmond thinks it will be enough to prevent either Dewey or Truman from getting a majority of the electoral college—266 out of 531. Should this happen, the election would of course be thrown into the new House of Representatives. There each state would have only one vote for a choice between the three high candidates in the national election. Thurmond thinks the southern states would then have balance of power and be able to decide the election.

This possibility is pretty generally discounted by Washington political observers. It is believed that Dewey has good chances for a minimum of 300 electoral votes, even if Thurmond gets his 100. Thurmond says the rise of his States' Rights Party has prevented Dewey from capturing any southern states, which he might otherwise have done because of opposition to Truman's civil rights program.

The reason people feel so discouraged about the U.N. is often because they expect from it things that it was not set up to do. —Eleanor Roosevelt.

Hey, Is There A Psychiatrist In The House?

As Our Readers See It

THE BROAD VIEW

Surely the "moderate" as well as the teetotaler can applaud your editorial of October 7. Definitely it was a courageous stand. I have some theories of liquor reform; but cocktail bars in cabarets is not one of them.

We parsons pick up too many casualties among those who begin their drinking at dancing parties. I cannot believe that cocktail bars is the solution. We are our brother's keeper whether we accept the responsibility or not. The firm stand of the Times is an acceptance of that responsibility. I should feel cowardly if I did not uphold you in a courageous stand.

GEORGE BIDDLE,
St. John's Church,
Quadra and Mason Sts.

FROM THE WOMEN

The Esquimalt United Church Auxiliary of the Women's Missionary Society wish me to express to you their sincere appreciation of your editorial in which you clearly stated your opinion against the proposal of the B.C. Cabaret Owners' Association for liquor licensing of cabarets.

We believe that you expressed not only your own opinion but also that of the majority of the voters of Victoria.
(MRS. JAMES) IDA HOOD,

SUPPORTS US.

Thank you for the stand you are taking with regards to liquor advertising. I admire you and gladly support you.

COMMUNITY WELFARE

The Women's Missionary Society of First United Church wish to express to you their appreciation of the stand you have taken for the cause of temperance in recent editorials of the Daily Times' (re request of Cabaret Owner's Association for change in liquor laws).

We realize that such a public stand requires moral courage and we commend The Times for its real interest in the welfare of the community.

Wishing your newspaper every success.

SWELLING THE CHORUS

May I add another voice to the chorus of approval with which your editorial, opposing the sale of liquor by the glass, has been received.

MRS. MILDRED BENNETT
853 Queens Avenue.

'SUBTLE CAMPAIGN'

The Women's Missionary Society of Centennial United Church wish to convey to you our thanks for your recent editorials in reference to the new campaign of the B.C. Cabaret Owners' Association.

We are in complete agreement with the sentiments expressed in your editorials regarding the increase of profits made by selling liquor by the glass instead of by the bottle. We wish to insure you of our support against this subtle campaign.

Woman's Missionary Society
Centennial United Church.
Mrs. Mable Poufou, Temperance and Christian Citizenship, secretary.

Per J. M. HOPKINS.

ALSO COMMENDS STAND

I imagine that John Citizen far too seldom writes a letter to the editor praising him. Often, no doubt, will he write in a critical vein.

I am not one of those who write either way as a rule. However, I did think that I would like to commend you for the stand taken in respect of the widening of our liquor regulations as same pertained to cabarets, etc.

Undoubtedly the special interests advocating these changes will bring tremendous pressure to bear. Unfortunately the public all too often pay too little attention to such matters until too late to do much about it. Fortunately an alert press is frequently the medium through which public opinion can be quickly crystallized.

C. C. ANNETT,
604 Yates St., Oct. 10, 1948.

PRACTICAL APPROVAL

I have not been a subscriber to the Times, but I learned yesterday that pressure had been put on you by the liquor interests to persuade you to accept their liquor advertisements, and that in your editorial columns you appealed to the reading public to learn if your policy of refusing to accept advertisements of intoxicating liquors, met with approval.

I am a comparatively newcomer to this district, but have found that the refusal of this municipality to permit the retail sale of alcoholic liquors adds very much to the attractiveness of the place, and it is a pleasure now to learn that a daily paper is taking the attitude that you are doing in regard to liquor advertising.

I am therefore glad to become a subscriber to the Times, and enclose, herewith one dollar for starting my subscription to begin with Nov. 1 issue.

THAT AIRPARK

Mr. W. A. Scott, chairman of the Greater Victoria Memorial Airpark Association, is quoted as saying:

"I am surprised an old-time flyer like Rex Hardie still opposes the airpark at a time when the world political situation is so tense, considering that we may need every trained pilot we can get."

This implies that the proposed airpark should be regarded as a military asset, both in the matter of training prospective service pilots and for use as an operational airbase in the possible event of war. When the chairman of the airpark association attempts to get away with such ill-informed comment it is time to protest.

The facts are, of course, that far from being a military asset in peace or war, an airpark on the proposed Gordon Head site will constitute both a military menace and a liability in wartime, and in peace its contribution toward military preparedness will be practically nil.

The area is too restricted for the construction of an airfield suitable for use by modern training or operational service aircraft. But even if that area was not too small, does anyone really think our service chiefs are so lacking in military knowledge and common sense that they would agree in these days, to siting an airfield for use in wartime within even ten miles of a city the size of Victoria or a naval base of the size and importance of the local one?

Obviously, the foregoing comments only scratch the surface of this subject; but they should be sufficient to indicate that to try to link the proposed airpark with national defence is tommyrot.

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
Associated Press News Analyst

DURING THE LATE WAR, second world conflict started by Germany in a generation, the Allies swore a mighty oath they would so thoroughly smash the Reich that never again would it be able to wage aggression.

Naturally destruction of the German war potential involved the wiping out of all arsenals and factories capable of material contribution to armaments. Many of these factories were destroyed by bombing, and those which survived were slated by allied agreement to be dismantled and removed as reparations.

It wasn't foreseen, of course, that the conflict was going to be followed by another struggle among the Allies themselves—the "cold war" which shortly grew out of Communist aggression. So in the flush of victory over Hitlerism the Allies made agreements which not only emasculated Germany's military potential but cut heavily into the ordinary industrial potential.

When the Communist drive against western Europe got into full swing it became apparent that defence depended on economic recovery of the war-stricken countries. The corollary to this was the Marshall Plan for rehabilitation. This plan has become the target of the Communists. Their offensive is aimed at preventing the program from succeeding and so rendering western Europe incapable of defending itself.

NEED GERMAN RECOVERY

It is clear that general rehabilitation depends heavily on German recovery.

This is a disturbing thought for countries like France, Britain and Belgium, which twice have stood the brunt of the Reich's initial onslaughts. France in particular has been fearful of putting the Germans on their feet again in Germany.

However, a remarkable change has come about recently in the viewpoint of the western European countries. And yesterday it appeared that both France and Britain were prepared to halt the dismantling of important German plants pending a review of the part which the Reich can play in European economic recovery.

MOMENTOUS

Now this doesn't necessarily mean that there will be any alteration in the German reparations program as originally laid down. A review may not change the situation. Still, the mere fact that the western Allies appear prepared to reconsider the whole German situation is in itself a momentous development.

It isn't going too far, I believe, to say that world peace will depend heavily on how this problem is handled. The western democracies may find it possible to meet Moscow's threat by putting Germany on its feet—always, of course, with proper safeguards against the re-creation of a strong war potential in the Reich.

BETTER THAN PERFECT

Baltic Review
The Riga paper CINA announces in an article on the "Acceleration of the Working Pace" on July 15:

"In many districts splendid results have been achieved as regards fodder for the winter. e.g. in the district of Vilani 112.5 per cent of the clover were mowed by July 10."

Words fall us before this Socialist exploit.

GENUINE ALLIANCE

Toronto Globe and Mail
It is high time the U.N. members who want it to be effective expelled the Soviet Union from the organization. These nations—the nations willing to take U.N. obligations and responsibilities seriously—include the United States, the members of the British Commonwealth and the leading Powers of Western Europe. Together, under a revised U.N. charter, they could form a genuine and cohesive alliance for peace.

DETERRENT?

Montreal Star
All three of the men involved in the murder of two constables had been found guilty on some occasion of robbery while armed. This is one of the offences for which the law allows a judge to impose the lash. None of the accused was ever sentenced to be whipped, but it may properly be asked whether the lash might not have proved a deterrent to further crime.

Desperate Straits

By DONALD McCULLOUGH

A SHORT TIME before I left Britain, I was being driven by a very old man in a very old taxi. The news was bad, and the weather was bad, and the mechanical condition of the old taxi was bad.

As the rain poured down, and the storm tore at the windows, I said to the old man: "It's a terrible good sense of the people would always ensure that we came through difficulties with flying colors, etc. But she did not seem convinced. 'It's all very well to talk like that,' she said, 'but I still say that it is terrible to lose five wickets for 47 runs in a test match.'"

Ever since that evening, whenever I hear people grumbling, I

Viking Ship

Norway Digest

Exciting discoveries unearthed during building excavations in the heart of the west Norwegian city of Bergen have raised hopes of another Viking ship find. According to the Bergen report, workmen have already turned up a rib and part of the keel of an ancient vessel.

Specialists called to the site have not yet been able to determine the age of the remains, though it is noted that the keel piece closely resembles that of the Viking ship earlier unearthed at Gokstad. It is suggested that these remains date from the middle ages. If so, it will be the first discovery of its kind to be brought to light in Norway.

Behind The Scenes At Labor Parley

During the long morning and afternoon sessions of the Trades and Labor Congress convention Tuesday in the Club Sirocco, many delegates, like those above, took time out from business proceedings to quench their thirsts with a bottle of pop. Left to right are: W. H. Scott, Beverage Dispensers' Local of Toronto; Mrs. Margaret Burgoyne, Hotel and Restaurant Employees' Union of Victoria, and W. G. Russell, Typographical Union of Toronto.

Unable to find seats on the crowded convention floor, these four delegates remained in the lobby of the meeting place and listened to convention proceedings coming over a loudspeaker. Left to right: Ed Smith, Civic Employees' Union of Vancouver; W. Fraser, Electrical Workers' Local of Vancouver; D. Gillies, Plasterers' International, from Buffalo, New York, and J. N. Ross, from Vancouver.

B.C. Had Lowest Birthrate In 1947

OTTAWA (CP) — Canada's birthrate broke into new high ground during 1947.

The Bureau of Statistics reported Wednesday the rate continued the general upward trend of wartime and postwar years by rising to 28.6 per 1,000 population, highest figure since an average of 27.4 was reached following the First World War.

The 1947 rate compared with 26.9 in 1946, 23.9 in 1945 and 23.8 in 1944.

New Brunswick for the second successive year had the highest birthrate in the Dominion with a figure of 36.2, followed by Prince Edward Island with 31.8, Quebec 31.2, Nova Scotia 31.0, Alberta 30.0, Saskatchewan 27.7, Manitoba 27.5, Ontario 26.0, and British Columbia 25.2.

Chief McLellan Against Reducing Police Force

Is the city police force over-staffed? Police Chief J. A. McLellan flatly replied "no" to a query of the police commission at a meeting Wednesday.

Chief McLellan said the increase in the police force over the past few years was due to a large number of factors, including increase in population. He contended there was no way in which he could cut the number of men on the force and still give adequate protection to the public.

The discussion over the strength of the police force resulted from a suggestion from Police Commissioner Burgess J. Gadsden, who expressed the opinion that the police force might be cut to meet next year's heavy expenditure.

However, Commissioner Gadsden did say if some light could be thrown as to the reason why there was a need for so many policemen, he would strongly support the strength of the present force.

"I would do so even if it was contrary to public opinion," he said. "But I want to be assured first why there is a need for so many men."

It was pointed out that over the period of five years the police force had increased from 44 to approximately 76 men.

Mayor Percy George and Commissioner James Neely both agreed that expenditures should be cut, but at the same time felt that the strength of the police force should be left as it is.

Mayor George pointed out that the city had grown within the past few years. Police also had to contend with a heavy influx of tourists and increased traffic in downtown Victoria, he said. "Police have other complex duties of which the public knows nothing about," he said. "In my opinion we are not over-staffed."

The commission made no headway in answering the question. It was finally decided to table the matter until Chief McLellan had prepared a detailed report on the duties and work of the police force.

Recalls Days When 'Dope' Sold Openly In Victoria

There are approximately 50 drug addicts in Victoria, Police J. A. McLellan told a meeting Wednesday of the City Police Commission. He added that he did not think the number of addicts was on the decrease.

However, he said, R.O.M.P. were clamping down on the distribution of drugs throughout Canada and were attempting to find a cure for addicts.

"I can remember when I first came to Victoria when drugs were sold openly to citizens," he said. "You bought a smoke as easily as you got a drink."

Chief McLellan said drugs were even manufactured in the city and sold in various downtown shops to anyone who applied for the narcotics.

The chief said the annual convention of the Chief Constables' Association of Canada held recently was informed by K. C. Hossick of Ottawa that Canada had between 3,000 and 4,000 drug addicts.

"Mr. Hossick stated that drug addiction is linked with crime for the reason that the addict will resort to crime in order to obtain the drug," said the chief. "To obtain the $20 or $30 a day needed by the addict for illegal drugs, he must steal goods of three times that value."

Thefts ran up to as much as $100 per addict per day, Chief McLellan said. Canadian business men were losing an estimated $42,000,000 a year as a result.

As an example, he pointed out that 500 known drug addicts in Vancouver cost the merchants of that city an average of $12,000 per day in petty and large scale thefts.

"Mr. Hossick announced the establishment in Ottawa of a technical advisory committee on narcotic drug addiction, and expressed the belief that a search for a cure for drug addiction will lead to a decrease in crime," Chief McLellan said. "Mr. Hossick stated that he did not agree with the establishment of clinics where an addict may receive his minimum sustaining dose, as recommended by many authorities."

Subject Of School Zones Up Before Police Commission

Police Chief J. A. McLellan urged the City Police Commission Wednesday to consider the matter of school zones very carefully before recommending any changes.

He was referring to recommendation made for the abolition of the "15 miles an hour" for the "stop when occupied sign."

Quoting an extract from a report of William Lemon, traffic superintendent of Vancouver, Chief McLellan pointed out that the only school crossing fatality in Vancouver in years occurred at one of the "Stop when Occupied" crossings.

"Such a zone works when motorists obey the instructions—but the trouble is that not all of them do it," said the chief.

University Radio Extension Studied

VANCOUVER (CP)—Student representatives from the four western Canadian universities will meet on the University of British Columbia campus Saturday to discuss plans for extending their two-year-old Western University Radio Federation.

George Barnes, chairman of U.B.C.'s Radio Society, will preside over the week-end meeting, which will attempt to line up exchange programs for the W.U.R.F. network. Last year the federation presented four quiz and four dramatic shows over CBC.

Visiting delegates will be here from the universities of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta.

Lotteries Debated At Police Meeting, McLellan Reports

In his report to the City Police Commission on annual convention of the Chief Constables' Association of Canada held recently in Vancouver, Police Chief J. A. McLellan said relaxing of the Lord's Day Act and the legalizing of lotteries were among the subjects discussed.

Chief McLellan told the Commission that Judge R. A. Sargent of Vancouver, went on record as favoring the relaxing of the "Lord's Day Act" and the legalizing of lotteries and book-making.

The delegates, he said, were not unanimous in their support. "I think I voice the opinion of most of the delegates when I say that no matter what changes and reforms we law enforcement officers would like to see, our first duty is to the enforcement of existing laws," he said.

He pointed out that changes in the Criminal Code, and reformation of out-moded laws, were tasks for lawyers and legislators and behind them, the weight of public opinion.

"The duty of the police officer is to enforce the law," he said. "It is a misfortune and embarrassment to him when laws remain on our statute books which are incapable of enforcement."

A fine of $35 and suspension of his driver's license for one month was imposed on Joseph Gorton, 902 McClure Street, in city police court Wednesday when he was found guilty of a charge of dangerous driving. The charge arose out of an accident at the intersection of Douglas and Humboldt Sts. Sept. 25 in which a U-Drive car driven by Gorton collided with a car driven by Edward F. Sciban, 1448 Taunton Street. Last week Sciban was given a similar sentence on the same charge.

Higher Output Urged Following Gains For Canadian Labor

Canadian workers were told Wednesday that gains in wages and working conditions should be followed by increased production.

The advice came from Richard F. Walsh, international president of the International Alliance of Theatrical Stage Employees and Moving Picture Machine Operators of the United States and Canada, who is the American Federation of Labor fraternal delegate to the Trades and Labor Congress convention here.

When gains are made for workers they "should show to the public that they are going to do that job just that much better," said Mr. Walsh who came here from New York.

Mr. Walsh advised Canadians also to have no part with the Taft-Hartley Act, which is the federal labor code of the U.S. He suggested the legislation resulted because the U.S. labor movement went to sleep.

"The act has tried to make the individual the biggest thing there exists in the world," he said, adding it had been followed by a move to do away with the labor movement.

Mr. Walsh supported the principle of labor groups sending delegates to similar groups throughout the world and said that if congressmen had traveled around more they would never have enacted the Taft-Hartley Act.

The fraternal delegate told of the difficulties of getting unions recognized as bargaining agents under the Taft-Hartley Act and told how the act benefited employers at the expense of labor.

In discussing Communism, he said that the A.F.L. would always be against Communism, just as it had been against Hitler and Franco. He indicated that he did not oppose Communist political organizations, but he did oppose Communist techniques in trade unions.

Detectives solved the mystery of a new suit and a pair of shoes found in a field at Sunderland recently. A merry wedding guest had gone to sleep in the field, then returned home in his underclothing.

Trade Unions Must Lead Struggle For Lasting Peace, T.L.C. Told

William Pearson, British Trade Union Congress fraternal delegate, told the Trades and Labor Congress convention here Wednesday afternoon that if a third world war were to be avoided it was necessary for the trade union movement all over the world to lead the struggle for a just and lasting peace.

An official of the coal miners union from Edinburgh, he thanked Canadians for all they did during the war and since the end of the war to help the British people in their difficulties.

"I am certain that this spirit of co-operation and good will can be extended in the present circumstance of developing economic crisis and the danger of war that is in people's minds," he said.

"The trade unionists of Canada and Britain can use their strength to develop new forms of international co-operation and also help to consolidate a lasting peace in the world."

Mr. Pearson urged unionists to strive to build to the greatest extent possible world trade union unity based on a policy of mutual aid and help when necessary.

"To do this the trade union movement must remain free to determine its own policy in relation to world events, and not be bound by the policy of their government," he continued.

He warned delegates that Winston Churchill was "representing the most reactionary thought in the country," and he expressed confidence the Conservatives would never return to power.

WORKERS NOT LAGGING

Britain's present poor economic position was not the result of the British workers lagging but "the neglect of our vital industries by their capitalist owners and the Tory governments," he said. He added the trade union movement throughout the world could learn from the experience of British unions during the Labor government's nationalization program.

"Nationalization cannot succeed unless the workers play a full part in all aspects of the industry through their trade unions," he said. "This is of the greatest importance."

"Any board must have the full confidence of the trade unions and the workers if the proper spirit is to extend within the industry."

The delegate from the British Trade Union Congress which represents more than 8,000,000 workers said the lessons from the coal mine nationalization must be considered in the nationalization of the steel industry—a step vital to the introduction of a planned economy in Britain.

Latin American Business Ruled By Outside Capital

Bernardo Ibanez, Santiago, Chile, president of the Inter-American Confederation of Workers, and his interpreter, Serafino Romualdi, Washington, D.C., Latin-American representative of the American Federation of Labor, left.

The economic life in Latin America is still dependent, to a large extent, upon the investment of monopolistic, outside capital. Bernardo Ibanez, president of the Inter-American Confederation of Workers, told delegates to the Trades and Labor Congress convention at their Wednesday afternoon session.

Most of the money controlling Central and South America, he declared, is from England, the United States and Canada.

"This capital is engaged in the exploitation of our raw materials and mineral resources, and takes advantage of a large supply of cheap labor," he said.

Senor Ibanez gave his address in Spanish. The speech brought to three the number of languages spoken at the convention. Previously, delegates had been addressed in English and French.

Dealing with conditions in Latin America, Senor Ibanez said that only in a few South American countries had social benefits for the people been introduced into legislation.

"You have succeeded in extending to practically every level of your population the benefits of a free public education," he noted. "In Latin America we are still far behind. Millions of people—children, young men and adults—are still illiterate. Many more lack the elementary, technical and professional training which is a prerequisite for their useful and productive employment in industry, in the mines, transport, building construction and agriculture."

Senor Ibanez's address was translated by Serafino Romualdi, Latin American representative of the American Federation of Labor.

T.L.C. Authorized To Affiliate With Hemisphere Group

The Trades and Labor Congress of Canada may affiliate with the Inter-American Confederation of Workers, a group organized early this year to embrace labor groups of the whole western hemisphere.

Following a plea from Bernardo Ibanez, president of the confederation, backed by Serafino Romualdi, Latin-American representative of the American Federation of Labor, the T.L.C. convention here Wednesday gave the executive authority to affiliate with the confederation.

Senor Ibanez explained the Inter-American Confederation of Workers was organized in January of this year to embrace labor groups from all over the Western Hemisphere.

Most labor groups in Mexico, Central America, the Caribbean Islands and the republics of South America are members of the confederation, he said, as well as the American Federation of Labor and the Railway Labor Executives' Association of the United States and Canada.

Confusion In Messages Over Missing Vessels

Confusion in messages led to the mistaken belief that two 36-foot logging tenders were missing on the mainland coast off the north end of Vancouver Island in last week's gales, according to B.C. police.

At first, it was believed that two vessels, the Stranger and Fraser, were missing. Police are now satisfied there was only one lost, the Stranger, whose operator, Edward Conway, was found safe beside his vessel wrecked on the shore.

Want Commercial Boundary Moved Back At Pt. Alberni

A. C. Pitt Clayton, president of the Port Alberni Tyee Club, worried about how commercial fishing was hurting the sport fishing business in the up-island canal, is calling for support to a move to have the commercial boundary pushed back to the entrance to the harbor.

At the annual banquet of the club Mr. Clayton gave figures to prove his arguments. He said the sports end of fishing during the tourist season was definitely being affected by the gill-netters' catch. At present, the commercial man was allowed to fish in close to Port Alberni, the president continued.

In the season just concluded, Mr. Clayton pointed out, the sportsmen's take had been 500 fish, weighing 12,000 pounds. On the other hand, the gillnetters had taken aboard their craft 4,000 to 5,000 fish weighing 100,000 pounds, at a commercial value of 22 cents a pound.

During the tyee season the tourist business was very valuable to the Albernis, the president continued, noting that about 211 of them had spent $12,600 in the district, putting the value of the fish they caught at $10 a piece.

Ask School Tenders At Duncan Shortly

DUNCAN—Tenders for a new high school will be called as soon as specifications, expected this week, are received. It was decided at a meeting of the Cowichan School District board of trustees.

Enrollment in Duncan public schools has reached 1,608, an increase of 130 over June with the greatest increase in the Duncan elementary school with 64 more pupils, the high school, with 46 more and Grade 1, with 196.

The local teachers' association requested an upward revision in salaries this year but the matter was referred to the school board management committee for further consideration. The board was approached on the matter of a night school course in dress-making, but felt it was not feasible until public opinion was obtained as to the demand for such a class.

Question of providing radios for rural schools was discussed, and the senior principal was asked to submit his recommendations as to the number of radios needed and the type. The teachers' association sent a request that their federation fees be deducted at the source for the month of November. The school board, while disapproving in principle of the check-off system, granted the request, and those fees will be deducted at the source for the month of November.

Tells Of Drought In South Africa

"No rain has fallen for as long as five years in certain parts of South Africa," Lionel E. Taylor, botanist, told members of the Victoria Horticultural Society at a meeting held in the Provincial Library.

Speaking of his recent collecting trip to Africa, Mr. Taylor explained that due to the extended period of drought vegetation in certain areas had completely dried up.

Mr. Taylor, who has been connected with the Forestry Department of Cape Colony and Transvaal for more than eight years, showed the various types of country from Capetown to Victoria Falls area in Rhodesia by means of color slides.

Wildflowers shown included native species such as pelargonium, clivia, proteas and mesembrythemum, of which cultivated varieties are sometimes seen in Victoria. He also showed pictures of flamingos, pelicans, egrets, giraffes, wart-hogs, lions and elephants.

The meeting approved of the affiliation of the Society for the Preservation of Native Plants with the Natural History Society.

George Hardy, president of the N.H.S., was in the chair.

His subject will be "Immigration medical services, epidemic controls and other public health services."

Dr. Jenkins' talk will follow a club supper which will commence at 6.

Naval Reserve May Get Own Frigate For Headquarters

The naval division H.M.C.S. Malahat hopes soon to have a ship of its own, the Yarrows-built frigate Beacon Hill.

Naval reserve officials Wednesday said: "It is almost certain" the Beacon Hill will be turned over to the reserve division for use as its new permanent headquarters.

However, it is pointed out that availability of the vessel depends on how soon the necessary permanent naval personnel can be obtained to serve as caretakers of the Beacon Hill. At present, it is expected this will not be possible until early next year.

The frigate is at present a unit of the R.C.N. reserve fleet stationed at Esquimalt. She has undergone maintenance since joining the reserve fleet.

The Beacon Hill, which was built by Yarrows early in the war, took part in a number of engagements with the enemy.

In her prospective new capacity it is hoped to have her moored in the Inner Harbor and naval reserve officials will approach civic officials with respect to this.

Famed Trans-Atlantic Blue Riband Trophy May Be Lost Forever

LONDON (Reuters)—The five-foot high "Blue Riband" trophy for which giant liners competed in north Atlantic crossings, has disappeared as signs multiply that the fierce competition of prewar years will be resumed soon.

The ornate trophy, of gilt silver, onyx and enamel, was awarded to the ship making the record crossing.

The riband was last won in 1938 by Britain's 81,637-ton Queen Mary, with an average speed of 31.69 knots, but the Cunard Company did not claim the trophy which then was carried on the ill-fated French liner Normandie.

MAY HAVE BURNED

The Normandie was burned out in a New York dock during the war while undergoing conversion as a troopship. The French line's records were destroyed in the war and, an official said, no one knows whether the trophy perished with the ship.

The trophy was originally presented by the late Harold Keates Hales, a Conservative member of Parliament who died in a boating accident in 1942. The Duke of Sutherland was a member of the committee which organized the trophy competition. His secretary said "the duke has often wondered what happened to the trophy."

In any case it seems that the blue-riband competition may never be fought out again—at least with Britain taking part.

"Economy in operation now is the order of the day," an official of the Cunard White Star Line said. "Records as such no longer interest us."

Convention Hears Union Here To Stay

The Trades and Labor Congress convention Wednesday heard that the Hotel and Restaurant Workers' Union was in Victoria to stay.

Mrs. Margaret Burgoyne, delegate from the union to the convention, made this clear. She was replying to a charge of F. Parsons, Powell River, Pulp and Sulphite and Paper Makers' Union, that more Victoria restaurants should be unionized.

Mrs. Burgoyne spoke of the difficulties of organizing employees of the Victoria restaurants and said that three Victoria restaurants had signed contracts with the union and one was negotiating a contract at the present time. She added that applications were now before the Labor Relations Board for certification of the union as bargaining agency for several other restaurants' employees.

To Show New Films

Under the auspices of the Recreation Council of Greater Victoria, three new films on recreation will be shown at the Victoria High School auditorium Friday at 8.

Ernest Lee, director of recreation, will take the chair, and the film "Holiday Island," which is in technicolor and deals with the use of national parks, will be introduced by a member of the Victoria Parks Board. "The Centre," which depicts the new centre at Peckham, London, England, will be introduced by Dr. J. L. Gayton, health superintendent; Dr. H. R. Anderson, organizing director for the Recreation Council of Greater Victoria, will introduce the third picture, "Fitness Is a Family Affair." The public is invited.

Adanacs Win Second Game; Popham Stars

TORONTO (CP)—New Westminster Adanacs, slowed down to "seeing speed" by the rugged, hard-cracking Hamilton Tigers, held onto a two-game lead today in their series for the Dominion senior lacrosse title but it was a close call.

The free-wheeling western Canadian champions had to fight all the way last night in the second game of their best-of-five Mann Cup series before they edged out a 13 to 11 victory. They won 11 to 8 Monday. The third game will be played Friday.

The westerners, who took Mimico Mountaineers in three straight for the cup last year, figure "they'll duplicate the feat in this series but they know it won't be as easy. They ran Mountaineers into the ground with their speed but with Tigers it's a different story.

Hamilton caught up to the speedsters last night and slowed them to an easy pace but Adanacs finish around the nets and sharp shooting spelled the margin of victory. They took advantage of every opportunity and demonstrated they are "money" players, coming through with a fourth quarter burst, just as they did Monday.

Archie Browning, the blond bombshell who scored 60 goals in regular season play on the west coast, paced Adanacs with a three-goal performance last night. The 17-year-old youngster also notched three Monday and at the rate he is going he'll be a strong candidate for the Mike Kelly trophy, awarded to the outstanding player of the series.

Tigers brought the small crowd to its feet in the first quarter with three goals without a reply from the westerners, but chiefs of the partisan crowd were short lived as Adanacs bounded back with five in the second quarter against Tigers' two.

POPHAM GETS THREE

Darryl Popham, Adanac forward, who went through the first game without a goal, also got three. Sam Kabatow scored twice and singles were counted by Jack Proctor, Captain Bob Lee, Jack Northrup and Ralph Douglas.

Tigers evened the count early in the fourth quarter when Jack Gair scored twice within three minutes.

Adanacs made it 13 to 11 near the end when R. Douglas took a pass from Ferguson in Tiger territory and rifled in a corner shot.

Pheasants, Ducks On Target List Saturday

Hunters Not To Shoot Until Sunrise; Other Regulations, Limits Announced

A new outburst of musketry fire will sound throughout Vancouver Island's shoreline and farm country starting Saturday morning when several more game birds became legal targets for the hunting fraternity.

The new open season is for cock pheasants and several types of migratory birds.

Pheasant season lasts until Nov. 14, with the bag limit, two daily and 10 for the season.

Among migratory fowl to be legal targets are ducks (except wood and elder), coots and geese (except black brant and snow geese). Season is open until Dec. 4.

Wilson snipe are other members of the waterfowl family hunters can line their sights up on that day. This is a shorter season, closing Nov. 14.

Bag limits are: Coots, 25 daily and 150 for the season; ducks, eight daily and 100 in the aggregate for the season; Wilson snipe, eight daily and 50 for the season.

NO SHOOTING TILL SUNRISE—The hunting fraternity is advised by the local game office that it is illegal to start shooting Saturday until sunrise. Day's shooting must cease one hour after sunset.

On Salt Spring and Mayne Islands there is a shorter season for pheasant shooters, Oct. 16 to Oct. 31, and the old rule of no shooting of pheasants in Saanich on Sundays throughout the season still stands.

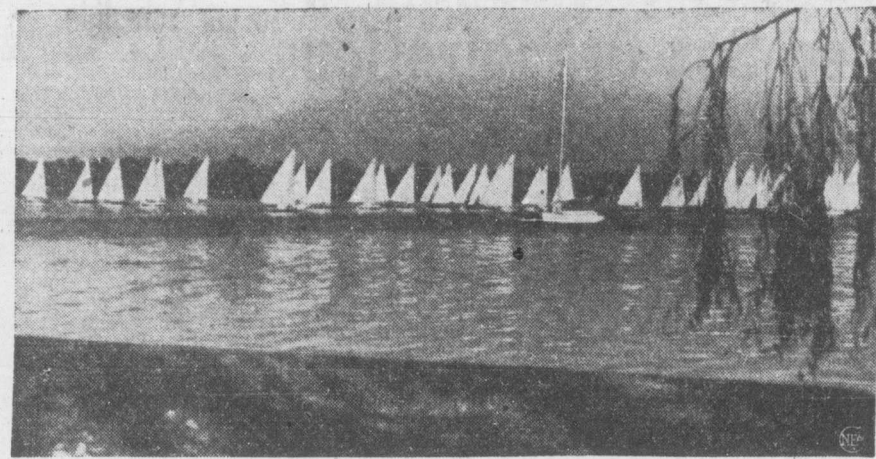

There is no open season for quail this year.

Preseason surveys indicate a fair showing of cock pheasants in the lower island's farmland areas. Cowichan and Chemainus flats, two localities which usually attract the bulk of the duck shooting crowds, are reported to have a fairly good supply of waterfowl on hand.

Hunters still have another half a month to go for blue grouse bags and Cowichan and Campbell River-Sayward districts continue to produce some fine bags. The supply of blues this year is rated among the best ever. Buck deer are scarce.

ATTENTION CRICKETERS—The annual meeting of the Victoria and District Cricket Association will be held at the Y.W.C.A. on Oct. 22 at 8. Refreshments will be served. All cricketers are urged to attend.

Sailing Along

Trim little mothboats sail the Pasquetank River, Elizabeth City, N.C., where the national regatta is to be held Oct. 15-17. The mothboat originated at Elizabeth City, and scores of offsprings of the first wee sailers will return for the races.

K.V.'s Senior Hoop Triumph Marked By Speed, Enthusiasm

What the early-season games in the city senior A basketball wheel lack in red-hot hoopla is made up by the fight and enthusiasm shown by the clubs.

This was evident at Victoria High School gym Wednesday night as Harold Turner's K.V.'s made their season's debut with a 39 to 32 triumph over Eagles.

The win put K.V.'s into a first-place deadlock with Y.M.C.A., each team having one victory.

Playing a scramble type of ball, the teams showed flashes of effective play, but at times tried to go too fast and sacrificed a certain amount of accuracy.

But it was a good game for the fans as K.V.'s, holding an edge in height, and taking advantage of free throws, built up a two-point lead in the first quarter and increased their margin to six points by the half, 22 to 16.

SLICE LEAD

Eagles, new entry in senior ranks this year, came roaring back in the third canto and managed to knot the count at 24 to 24.

Baskets by Ralph Anderson and Fred Ranson boosted winners into a 28 to 24 lead at the three-quarter pole.

Scrambling for the ball in an effort to get back into the game, Eagles were held at bay by the K.V.'s strategy of slowing the game up considerably.

Long shots were in order as Bob Long swished a brace through the nets for Eagles. Bob Hampton and Fred Ranson more than nullified this with five and four final quarter counters respectively as K.V.'s coasted to a win.

ANDERSON HIGH

Winners' Ralph Anderson, Fred Ranson and Bob Hampton paced the attack with 12, 10 and 8 points, in that order. Jimmy Ranson and Bernie Anderson managed seven apiece for the Eagles.

In the curtain-raiser, Hopcats trounced Esquimalt Genii, 48 to 16, in a junior girls' game. Doreen McKay, 14, and Christine

Wings Flash Power In Tripping Black Hawks

Patterson Leading Scorer In Prairie Loop; Rowe Third

WINNIPEG (CP)—Coincident with an upsurge in the fortunes of Saskatchewan Roughriders as a whole, two members of the team were in dominant positions tonight in the scoring race in the Western Inter-Provincial Football Union.

Dusky Gabe Patterson punched into the top slot with 29 points in nine games. Teammate Ken Charlton was second with 28 and Paul Rowe of Calgary Stampers moved into third place with 25.

Patterson, the fleet backfielder who won the scoring crown last season, zipped into the lead by picking up a touchdown and four converts against Winnipeg Blue Bombers Oct. 11. Charlton, the long-ball hooper for the Roughies, had two singles in the same game.

But the week's biggest advance was made by Saskatchewan's man with the swivel hips, pass-catching Darrel Warden. Warden latched on to three touchdowns for a 15-point rise, sending his total to 20.

Calgary's touchdown topper, quarterback Keith Spaight, picked up a major score to send his total to 23, one behind Winnipeg's Bob Sandberg. However, Bombers have played one more game than the Roughies and the Stamps.

Calgary's Woody Strode, held off the scoresheet in the last game in which the Stamps walloped Bombers, has 20 points while Fred Wilmut of Stamps and Don Hiney of Bombers have 17 apiece.

Close Matches Seen In Interhigh Soccer

The soccer rivalry in the inter-high soccer circuit came to the fore Wednesday as two of the four games played ended in draws.

Scoring the tying goal 10 seconds from the final whistle, Victoria High House IV eleven squeezed through to gain a 3-all draw with House I.

It was the same story in a game between Victoria High House II and Mount View High. After trailing 2 to 0 in the early stages, the latter squad scored a goal in each half to gain their draw. Marvin Tait was the hero for Mount View as he netted the equalizer in the final minute of play.

HOUSE III WINS

Stan Murphy stole the show in a game between Victoria High House II and Esquimalt High, scoring both goals for the city school team in their 2 to 1 triumph.

At Oak Bay High, that school's Greens turned back Whites, 4 to 2. Ken Higgs and Bob Hutchison scored the winning and clinching markers after Whites had overcome a two-goal deficit in the second half.

OAK BAY PRACTICE

Oak Bay intermediate soccer team will practice at Windsor Park tonight at 7.

Detroit Red Wings, co-favorites with Toronto Maple Leafs in the National Hockey League this season, ran true to form last night, beating the rejuvenated Chicago Black Hawks 3 to 1 as the N.H.L. lifted the lid on the 1948-49 campaign.

It was the earliest opening in the League's history, and Detroit's smallest first-game crowd since before the war—10,780 fans—watched the Wings break a 1 to 1 deadlock with two third-period goals.

Two more clubs see action tonight when Frank Boucher takes his injury-riddled New York Rangers into Montreal for a clash with Canadiens.

Detroit won the game on goals by rearguards Jack Stewart and Leonard (Red) Kelly and rookie Max McNab, who also drew an assist on Stewart's marker to lead the point-getters.

HENRY IN FORM

Sugar Jim Henry, who came to the Hawks in a trade this week with Rangers, made his debut in the Chicago nets and blocked 19 of the first 20 shots fired at him in the first two periods but he couldn't withstand the Detroit pressure in the final frame and the Wings banged home two counters to put the game on ice.

After a scoreless first period, Jack Stewart hit the target on a relay from McNab at the 40-second mark of the middle session. Slick Gus Bodnar got that one back for Chicago on a solo effort at 17:25.

The Wings went ahead to stay at 3:30 of the final frame when Kelly streaked in from the boards, skirted Ralph Natrass and felled Henry out of position to ram home what proved to be the winning goal. McNab then backhanded in a rebound off Gordon Howe's long shot for the clinching counter.

Detroit's Jim McFadden, winner of the Calder rookie award last season, was presented with the cup before the game by N.H.L. president Clarence Campbell.

Coach Frank Boucher brought his Rangers into Montreal for tonight's game with Canadiens, confident that the blueshirts will give a good account of themselves despite the loss of four key players.

RANGERS PLAY

For Boucher, who got Rangers into the playoffs last season after five straight years in the dreary confines of the N.H.L. basement, the loss of star centres Buddy O'Connor and Edgar Laprade and defencemen Eddolls and Bill Moe was a serve blow to his plans for the campaign.

All four were injured in an automobile crash last week. O'Connor and Eddolls are out for six weeks, while Laprade and Moe expect to be back in action in a week or so.

Rockets Trounced By Royals In Ice Clash

The San Francisco Shamrocks were the hottest thing on ice during a hectic third period which enabled them to clip the Fresno Falcons, 6 to 5, in their Pacific Coast League hockey opener last night.

At the northern end of the circuit, the Tacoma Rockets were still being thawed out of the ice today after an 8 to 2 drubbing by the New Westminster Royals.

The Portland Eagles got their first league win by frosting the Seattle Ironmen, 4 to 2; Seattle had only 12 puck-nudgers available. Bob Leger was out with a sore neck and Pete Tallifer was out because of a sore ref.—he pushed the referee and got ejected.

Bombers' Line-up Altered For Grid Game At Calgary

WINNIPEG (CP)—With ace quarterback Don Hiney and two other stars sidelined with injuries, Winnipeg Blue Bombers will undergo a major line-up shuffle for Monday's football tussle with Calgary Stampede.

Hiney did not turn up for Bombers' practice session last night and is almost certain to be out of the starting line-up Monday. There was no report of X-Ray examination of chest injuries he received in last Monday's game against Roughriders, but it is feared he is suffering from a rib separation.

Don Smith is out with a groin injury and Ernie Ahoff, guard, won't play Monday because of infection in both legs.

Frank Zajac, also on Bombers' casualty list, will play with a broken thumb.

Coach Jack West is expected to go with Al Passman moving from tackle to guard position. Johnny Westrum shifting from end to tackle, Ron Vacher starting at end, Fitzgibbons moving to the backfield from end.

Bombers will work out of a single wing back instead of from the "T" formation.

Don Smith and Ahoff are expected to be back in the line-up for the Oct. 30 game with Saskatchewan Roughriders. Hiney also will be back unless his injury is more serious than thought.

Island Softball Parley Sunday

Annual meeting of the Vancouver Island Softball Association will be held at the Malaspina Hotel, Nanaimo, Sunday at 1:30.

All teams who participated in island playoffs are entitled to one representative at the meeting.

Despite the almost phenomenal record of 64 successful completions in 111 attempted forwards, the 25-year-old Visalia, Calif., import is confident Stampede will do even better during the remainder of the season.

"Our passing offensive is just starting to click now," Spaitth told the Canadian Press. "It takes hours of practice plus the experience of playing together in actual competition to smooth out a passing play."

TOUCHDOWN TWINS—In Spaitth and end Woody Strode, Calgary's red-hot grid fans believe they have a touchdown combination equal to Toronto Argonauts famous touch-

Monaghan To Defend Title Against Marino

NEW YORK (AP)—Flyweight champion Rinty Monaghan of Belfast is coming to the United States to defend his 112-pound title against Dado Marino of Honolulu, probably at Los Angeles in early January.

This is the first answer to the reorganized 20th Century Sporting Club by the rival Tournament of Champions which will promote the Monaghan-Marino boxing go.

The crown, previously held by Jackie Paterson of Scotland,

Mulligan Sorry To Lose Jim Turner

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Bill Mulligan, general manager of the Portland Pacific Coast League team, expressed regret at losing the services of Jim Turner, Beaver manager signed as New York Yankee coach.

Mulligan said, a replacement probably will not be made until after the minor league meeting in Minneapolis Dec. 13.

In Vancouver, Beaver owner George Norgan had no comment.

Calgary's Keith Spaitth Being Touted For All-Dominion Honor

CALGARY (CP)—The warning cry of a gridiron aerial attack—"Pass, pass, pass," is striking fear into the hearts of opposing clubs every time quarterback Keith Spaitth leads his rollicking Calgary Stampede into battle.

For the bullet-like passes of the tall, likeable Californian have been a key factor in the rough-riding cowboys' spectacular nine-straight victory march across western Canada football conference gridirons.

Despite the almost phenomenal record of 64 successful completions in 111 attempted forwards, the 25-year-old Visalia, Calif., import is confident Stampede will do even better during the remainder of the season.

"Our passing offensive is just starting to click now," Spaitth told the Canadian Press. "It takes hours of practice plus the experience of playing together in actual competition to smooth out a passing play."

TOUCHDOWN TWINS—In Spaitth and end Woody Strode, Calgary's red-hot grid fans believe they have a touchdown combination equal to Toronto Argonauts famous touchdown twins—Joe Krol and Royal Copeland.

Like Copeland, Strode has the ability to hurl his six-foot-three-inch frame high into the air to snatch a pass from the hands of would-be interceptors. A graduate of University of California at Los Angeles and a former United States professional, Strode lacks the sheer running power of Argo's great receiver. But grid experts who have seen both in action, rate Strode a surer pair of hands than the Toronto star when he stretches his long frame to haul in a pass.

TOP QUARTERBACK—Calgary grid experts already are beating the drums for Spaitth, not only as the logical choice for all-western quarterback honors, but as the top signal caller in the whole Dominion.

Besides his sensational average of more than 57 per cent successful pass completions, the blond six-footer boasts the best kicking average in the prairie circuit—a neat 44 yards a punt. And he also has demonstrated that he can pack the ball for sizeable gains through the line or around the end.

Spaitth was quarterback of the professional Honolulu Warriors of the Pacific Coast Conference last year and was an understudy of the famous Bob Waterfield of Los Angeles Rams.

BANNED IN U.S.

His hopes of joining the Rams for this season received a setback when he was banned from U.S. pro ranks last season under gambling regulations after he and some of his team-mates made a wager that they would win one of the Warriors' final games of the season. Ironically, not only were they banned from the pro ranks, but also lost their money.

They bet they would beat the opposing club by two touchdowns and only managed to eke out a 7 to 6 victory.

The husky Stamp quarterback rates the brand of football played in the western circuit this year as about on a par with the Pacific Coast Conference.

Like most United States players, he would like to see backs allowed to block for at least 10 yards in advance of the line of scrimmage.

ADDS TO GAME

"I think it really opens up the game and gives the spectators more thrills," Spaitth said. "But I hope Canadians never abolish the kick to the deadline. I really like that rule and it adds much to the game. Sometimes one of those single points feel like a touchdown late in the game."

Hockey Victories

Edmonton Flyers, defending Allan Cup champions, and Regina Capitals opened the Western Canada Hockey League schedule with victories last night.

Edmonton, outplaying the opposition most of the way, trimmed the Lethbridge Maple
 Leafs, 6 to 2, while Regina
 Capitals trounced Bobby Kirk's
 Saskatoon Quakers, 6 to 1.

Colin Kilburn paced the Edmonton scoring parade with two goals and an assist. The game was played at a bruising

Bobby Permane
Rides In Reverse

NEW YORK (AP) — Jockey
Bobby Permane, who owns the "hottest" riding streak in modern racing history, is now setting a record in the opposite direction.

Permane rode 18 winners in 29 races at Tropical Park, Miami, from April 5 to 8, 1944. He won five races on each of three successive days. Only five of the 29 mounts were out of the money.

The little Camden, N.J., veteran hasn't ridden a winner since
Sept. 6. He rode three losers
Wednesday, ridding his streak to 126.

There are no official "losing" records kept, but racing observers here couldn't recall a longer string of hard luck.

Tips On
Golf Rules

By ROBERT FOULIS

Tip No. 27

STROKE PLAY—BALL
MUST BE REPLACED

Question: A competitor in a stroke competition plays from about 30 yards from the hole.
His ball strikes the ball of a fellow competitor, knocking it nearer the hole. The latter neglects to replace his ball.

Answer: The player who neglected to replace his ball is disqualified. Like the player in Tip No. 2 he has not played the stipulated round according to the rules. No penalty against competitor who played from beyond 20 yards of the hole.

The size of balls has not changed much. The old feather ball and the gutta percha ball are about the same size. The "bottle" seems to be slightly larger than the present British or Canadian ball, but not so large as the American ball.

Re note under Tip No. 12, the short, dead, "impossible" style is more "impossible" with the American ball.

A caddy cannot be considered a "marker." Under urgent and exceptional conditions, however, the committee may alter this interpretation.—R. and A.

Yawkey Wields Axe In Red Sox Organization

BOSTON (AP)—It's almost a clinch bet that Red Sox owner
Tom Yawkey, vice-president Eddie Collins, general manager Joe
Cronin and manager Joe Mc-Carthy will be around next season
—but don't bet on anyone else except possibly some of the better ball players on the Boston team.

Yawkey couldn't hide his disappointment over losing the American League pennant in an unprecedented playoff, and much of the blame is being passed around to Sox and farm officials.

Three members of the organization are gone and the Sox, rejecting all questions, indicate the three resigned.

The three disagreed and say, in effect, "we didn't jump, we were pushed."

BAKER OUT

Latest to go is Del Baker, veteran coach and one-time Detroit Tigers manager, who will be replaced by Hazen (Kiki) Cuyler, recently a manager in the Southern Association.

The Sox office, reporting the change, said Baker had resigned.
At his San Antonio, Tex., home
Baker reported that he had been dismissed.

George (Specs) Toporcer also said he wanted "to stay in baseball," after the Sox said that he had resigned, that his health was poor and that his farm director's job had been filled by scout Johnny Murphy.

"My health is fine," Toporcer told friends after he had been replaced.

Toporcer's resignation-dismissal followed by a few days the firing of the assistant general manager,
Phil Troy, who had been with the Sox for 18 years.

B.C.'s Junior Ice
Trophy Missing

NELSON (CP)—Where is the Mowat Cup?

The cup is the British Columbia junior hockey championship trophy. Secretary L. G. Atwell of the B.C. Amateur Hockey Association said he doesn't know where it is.

Apparently it has been missing for some years. Trail won the cup the last two years and Nanamo Clippers the year before that. But they never saw the trophy when won.

29TH STRAIGHT WIN

HERSHEY, Pa. (CP) — Cleveland Barons defeated Hershey
Bears 4 to 2 in an opening game of the American Hockey League season last night. It was the 29th consecutive victory for the Barons. Hershey scorers were Pete Leswick, Roy Kelley (2), and Ab Demarco. For the Bears, goal-getters were Mark Marquess and Jerry Brown.

Carl Liscombe Sets
Ice Scoring Record

PROVIDENCE, R.I. (AP) —
Carl Liscombe, who broke all professional records scoring 118 points last season, gained four goals and two assists as Providence Reds defeated New Haven
Ramblers 8 to 3 last night in an American Hockey League game.

In performing his scoring feat,
Liscombe also set a new league mark by tallying the four goals in 10 minutes and 11 seconds.

Liscombe also scored four goals in the final game of last season.
He shared honors tonight with his two linemates, Harvey Fraser, who countered once and assisted on four other goals, and Roger Bedard, who tallied once and assisted three times.

Other Providence goals went to Scherza and Hamilton. Scorers for New Haven were Dave
Brown and Ramsden.

Canadiens Ship Four Players To Minors

MONTREAL (CP) — Four members of Canadiens' hockey squad left by plane last night to join the Dallas team of the United States Hockey League for the Texans' opener in St. Paul tonight.

The four include Roger Leger, bulky defenceman who played regularly with the N.H.L. Canadiens last season. Roger volunteered to join Dallas to take off weight and get in better playing shape. He is expected to return to Canadiens in a few weeks.

The others accompanying
Leger are Tod Campeau, Jacques
Richard and Jimmy Galbraith, all from Montreal amateur teams.

DiMaggio Plans
Annual Check-up

NEW YORK (AP) — Joe Di-Maggio of New York Yankees said Wednesday he is planning to enter John Hopkins hospital in Baltimore soon for his annual physical check-up.

The Yankee centre-fielder has been troubled by a bone spur in the heel. In 1947 an operation for a similar growth on his left heel kept him out of action at the start of the season.

Call Tenders To Start Alterations To Legion Building

Britannia Branch of the Canadian Legion, which now boasts a membership of 2,300, will shortly spend $15,000 in the first step of many improvements to its modern headquarters building at the intersection of Blanshard and Cormorant Streets.

Tenders have been called for the $15,000 project, main part of which is construction of another floor above the present men's lodge of 50x120 dimensions. The new floor will be divided into a mixed lounge and a recreation room. It is hoped work will start by the end of this month and be ready by Christmas.

According to the secretary, Col. Eric Parker, mixed lounge will be a reading and library room for the benefit of older veterans. This is being done because it has been brought to the attention of branch officials that older veterans, many living in one room, need a place for recreation. Recreation room is for ex-service women, nursing sisters and male members.

High costs of building have been the cause of postponement of carrying out the full improvement scheme at this time. Also planned are a snack bar in the basement, increasing size and facilities of rest rooms, a separate entrance for the meeting hall facing Blanshard, replacing of the neon sign to the corner of the structure, improvement to facilities of the branch meeting room.

When the new sections are opened, it is planned to have a "house-warming week."

Hits 'Lame Duck' Public Impression

Alfred Peart, Calgary, president of the Canadian Council of Provincial Government Employees Association, said here Wednesday night every effort must be made to correct the common impression that civil servants are "lame ducks."

He was addressing 200 members of the Victoria branch of the B.C. association and by "lame duck" he meant they entered the civil service because they failed at some other job.

"We want the best of our young people recruited for civil service," he stated. "The work of the civil service is one of the most important in any country, and the best people should do it."

Efficient public relations will help correct the misbeliefs, Mr. Peart said.

The meeting heard addresses from other executive members of the association from Alberta and Saskatchewan, most of them delegates to the Trades and Labor Congress convention.

Chairman of the meeting was W. S. Oliver, president of the Victoria branch.

It was announced that total contributions from the branch to flood relief were $13,111, and total membership has climbed to 1,300, an increase of 366 over last year's membership.

Thieves In Daring Oak Bay Raid

Ryland Huntley cleans up mess caused by broken glass following early-morning robbery.

Between 1 and 2 this morning thieves made a daring raid on the premises of Ryland Huntley Radiolounge at 2180 Oak Bay Avenue and escaped with six mantel radios valued at $390. The radio shop is at the northeast corner of Oak Bay Avenue and Wilmet Place, a block away from the Oak Bay police station.

A large plate-glass window was smashed to gain entry. Glass splinters were scattered back about 60 feet into the shop and there was some damage done to the paintwork on other radios. Up to a late hour this morning no residents in the neighborhood had reported to the police of hearing the sound of breaking glass. It is believed any such sound was drowned out by the noise of a revved-up motor. Police report a car was seen parked in that area about 2 this morning.

Kitain Chills, Warms His Audience With Violin

By AUDREY S.T.D. JOHNSON

An electrifying display of all the facets of virtuosity marked the performance Wednesday night, of Robert Kitain, who has been called the "Russian Paganini." It is not difficult to understand the allusion although it does not do entire justice to Mr. Kitain's individuality and modernism.

From classic to modern, the program was largely devoted to works of a highly technical and pyrotechnical nature. The large audience in the Royal Theatre showed unmistakable enthusiasm and astonishment all through the evening.

It seems that there is very little that can be done with a violin that Mr. Kitain does not accomplish fluently and with style. The Bach "Chaconne" for unaccompanied violin, for instance, explores exhaustively every resource of the violinist; long, sustained double-stopping passages, staccato bowing, intricate cadenzas and other all through the lengthy composition.

The slow movements of the two long works and such delicacies as Debussy's "Claire de Lune," had a restrained, thoughtful lyricism; a quality, however, that does not often tinge the violinist's more spectacular work. In other words, the very fine artist that Mr. Kitain undoubtedly is, tends to become somewhat swamped in the grandiose, vigorous and, dazzling style of the virtuoso.

To be alternately chilled and warmed by an artist is an interesting and rather unusual experience. There was the Vivaldi Respiqui Sonata with the short, lovely Largo and the brilliant "Symphonie Espagnole" by Lalo. At every moment one was admiring the vigor and agility of the left hand and the supple bow while remaining spiritually untouched. Breath-taking beauty in mood and atmosphere—perhaps the most moving moment in the whole evening—came with the playing of the Berceuse from Stravinsky's "Fire Bird."

Two dances by Joaquin Nin and a Brazilian Dance by Valle were popular and proved masterpieces of exquisite bow technique. The program closed with the Wieniawski "Scherzo Tarentella." Mr. Kitain gave several encores, including Schubert's "Ave Maria" and the Heifetz-Dinicu "Hora Staccato."

Taking on the role of accompanist at two days' notice, due to an accident suffered by Armando Montiel Olivera, Ira Swartz of Vancouver gave a remarkable demonstration of pianistic skill and artistry, particularly in the opening Sonata, in which he constantly exchanged technical displays with the soloist.

Col. M. D. Robertson, chairman of the Remembrance Day poppy campaign this year, said Poppy Day would be marked throughout the Greater Victoria area, Nov. 6. Proceeds from sales of poppies and wreaths go toward helping disabled and needy veterans, he said. All coastal passenger ships of the C.P.R. will display large maple leaf and poppy wreaths in their main lounges during the week of Nov. 7.

Fines Collected Total $3,137
Fines collected by the City Police Department during September totalled $3,137, the Police Commission was informed at a meeting Wednesday. Court convictions numbered 654.

Value of stolen property reported totalled $1,921. Police recovered $508 of this amount.

There were 21 minor accidents in September. Two persons were seriously injured, while sixteen others suffered from minor injuries.

Seventy-three working days were lost during the month due to sick leave, the report said.

Red Cross Workshop Busy Making Poppies
Remembrance Day poppies and wreaths for all points throughout British Columbia are being made by 13 men, all veterans, at the Red Cross Workshop, 584 Johnson Street.

Production this year will include 375,000 smaller type poppies, at least 20,000 larger ones and thousands of wreaths of various design, according to J. G. Morley, in charge of the shop.

Thousands of poppies and wreaths have already been prepared for shipment to cities and communities in B.C. and a considerable number will soon leave,

Community Chest Helps Blind In Battle Against Handicap

Most people, at some time or other, have stopped to purchase a package of cigarettes or a chocolate bar or a bottle of pop at a stand marked with a plaque bearing the initials C.N.I.B. To some, perhaps, the initials meant nothing. To others they simply stood as an abbreviation for the name, Canadian Institute for the Blind. To the man behind the counter, however, and to many more like him, those initials mean employment, enjoyment and independence.

It is surprising to most people to learn there are 113 blind persons living in the Greater Victoria area. That's a lot.

The C.N.I.B. has helped, and is continuing to help, all of them to live normal lives, and to overcome their tremendous handicap.

In Victoria, blind persons are taught in their own homes how to make things with their hands which are useful and which are readily marketed.

Instruction in leatherwork, weaving and other handicraft skills is given by Miss D. G. Stark, local representative of the C.N.I.B., who is herself blind.

Miss Stark also teaches the reading and writing of Braille and the use of a typewriter. These are skills which blind persons find invaluable.

The C.N.I.B. newsstands in this city are other undertakings of the institute to provide, gainful employment for the blind.

FIVE STANDS HERE

There are five such stands in Victoria: one at the Jubilee Hospital, one at St. Joseph's, one in the Parliament Buildings, one in the lobby of the Belmont Building and another next to the Carnegie Library on Yates Street.

These stands are set up and stocked by the institute. The men who operate them are especially trained for the job and are put in on a salary basis.

Another service the C.N.I.B. provides for the blind is the purchasing and sale, at cost price, of certain blindmen's necessities. Watches, for instance, which have raised dots in place of numbers, are acquired through the institute office.

Realizing a certain amount of recreation is necessary for all people if they are to live happy lives, the institute has formed the Victoria White Cane Club, where blind people can go once a week to discuss current events and to chat with one another; has organized two bowling teams and a choir.

For the continuance and expansion of this work in 1949, the C.N.I.B. needs $4,200. Victorians can provide this money by contributing generously to the current Community Chest campaign.

Higher Bus Fares For Rural Saanich Still Being Studied

Dr. W. A. Carrothers, chairman of the Public Utilities Commission, said today an application by the Vancouver Island Coach Lines to increase fares on buses traveling from the city into rural Saanich is under consideration still.

The company applied for permission to up fares following the commission's approval of increased fares in the Greater Victoria transportation system.

Dr. Carrothers said it would be "sometime yet" before a decision is handed down on the B.C.E.R. request for revision of electric hot water heating rates which was given a hearing at the time the Greater Victoria bus fares application was argued.

He said the question is being approached from a different angle and that a modified application is expected from the company shortly.

PORT ALBERNI—Rivalry between factions of the I.W.A. continues acute in this district.

Most duly elected officials of local 1-85 favor and actively urge secession from the I.W.A. and favor W.I.U. They are conducting a referendum ballot among the membership of camps and mills although a meeting of the local held last Saturday voted to stay with the I.W.A. and refused to sanction the referendum.

Loyal members headed by John Squire, A.P.L. sub local president, and assisted by Fred Fleber, international organizer, are spearheading the rank and file move to stay with the I.W.A.

Squires issued a statement today charging that local officers were conducting a referendum ballot at A.P.L. Camp 1 contrary to instructions from the local meeting.

$136,500 School Bid For Port Alberni

PORT ALBERNI—Southern Construction Co. bid of $136,500 on the Gill School will be forwarded to Victoria for department consideration and approval. Second bid by an unnamed tenderer was turned down because certified cheque was not enclosed.

But still we had no end of fun, so we're going back... to where they run. Hoping THIS time... they will not balk, but slow down maybe... to a walk. And then 'en to, a slower gait, when sizing up... our "Wonder-8".

TRI-LITES... beautiful at $12.00. Table lamps... only $3.95.

AND THEN MAYBE... our lure to lap, & open up their gilly trap. Then snap it shut, like on a slab, 2 dentures in... a dentist's lab. 'Cause if they do... deep in the brine, it's for them... the end of the line. 'Cause THIS time, if they try & steal, we're better equipped... with rod and reel. More experienced... seasoned now, we'll play you in... not just plow. 'Cause our lines are lighter, we've the dope, whereas before... we dragged a rope.

A NEW DEPT... has been added... a whole floor of chrome... tables & chairs of every known kind... as pictured $87.50.

And WE'RE BETTER DRESSED, "she's" jeans, not a skirt, & I'll have more color... in my logger's shirt. A plaid effect, red, yellow & white, I'm an outdoor man... a wonderful sight. This shirt cost the G.F. 3-ninety-eight, so pause Mr. Coho... sample our bait. But ONLY... if you're... a decent size, to enter the contest, win the prize. A lot of glory, will come to you, if on the scales they say... "You'll do." In the papers, your picture will be, beside the G.F., the 1st prize & m. And the write-up will say, "He like TUBBY, I played the scales, so WON THE DERBY."

Hallowe'en is Shell-out Time and Everybody Loves the PURITY

Hallowe'en is coming round again! When your doorbell rings, be ready with this grand Purity Pumpkin pie... made with Purity Flour... of course! Here's a melt-in-your-mouth pastry recipe.

PURITY PASTRY (enough for 2 pie shells)
Sift together 1½ cups Purity Flour and ½ teaspoon salt. Cut ¼ cup shortening into mixture with two knives, until it looks like very coarse meal. Add 3 tablespoons ice water gradually, mixing enough to hold mixture together. Chill dough for 5 or 10 minutes and turn out on a lightly floured board. Roll with a light quick motion to ¼ inch thickness. Press dough lightly into pie plates so that no air bubbles are trapped, and trim off the edge.

FILLING (1 pie)
Beat 2 eggs only until whites and yolks are well blended. Gradually add ½ cup white sugar, and add 1 teaspoon cinnamon, ¼ teaspoon ginger, ¼ teaspoon nutmeg, ¼ teaspoon allspice, and a few grains of salt. Stir in 1½ cups hot milk. Pour pumpkin and ¼ cup hot milk into pie plate lined with pastry and bake in hot oven (450°F.) for first ten minutes, then reduce temperature to moderate (350°F.) and bake for 20-25 minutes, or until filling is firm. Cool and serve with whipped cream or decorate with a raisin lace. (Filling recipe may be doubled if you wish 2 pumpkin pies.)

Remember, Purity Flour, specially milled from finest hard wheat—is best for all your baking.

MacMillan Defends Policy Of Selling Lumber For Coast

OTTAWA (CP) — The Prices Commission Wednesday embarked on its initial examination of the big Pacific coast lumber operators.

After questioning a series of lumbermen, ranging from a prairie firm with a chain of retail outlets to eastern lumbermen with a single yard, the commission called before it H. R. MacMillan of Vancouver, president of the $28,000,000 firm and subsidiaries which bears his name. The initial phase of the commission's investigation of big-scale timber operations dealt with general questions.

Mr. MacMillan, who appeared with two other officials of the company, was questioned about previous allegations that the big Pacific coast men do not give prairie firms a fair share of the lumber they market in Canada.

GIVES REASONS

Mr. MacMillan did not object to the suggestion from earlier witnesses that Vancouver and other coastal cities get proportionately more lumber from B.C. than the rest of Canada. He offered three reasons for it.

The British Columbia buyer had no other source of lumber than the mills in his own province, whereas Alberta firms could always get much of their supply from the spruce mills in their own own province or from northern B.C.

The firms did business on the west coast and with thousands of employees—and their neighbors—must satisfy its own people first.

"I think we get paid better," Mr. MacMillan offered as his third reason in defence of B.C. over prairie sales.

Car Winner Forgets Trousers In Hurry

PORT ALBERNI — Sherman Lauder, 10-year-old native of the Indian Reserve, winner of a new 1949 Mercury car, was presented with keys of the vehicle by Howard McLean, Kinsmen president, Tuesday afternoon in the presence of other Milk For Britain committee members.

Sherman's father, Ernie Lauder, is a laborer and has owned only one car, an old Model T. Ford bought for $14. The family intend to keep the new car.

Sherman states he was not excited when he was awakened to learn he had the right to answer a question that might win him the car. He and his father got as far as the gate before Mrs. Lauder called them back for their trousers.

Logger Killed

Shawnigan Lake—A Shawnigan Lake war veteran, Gerald Flynn, 24, employed as head loader by the Cameron Logging Co. Ltd., at Leechtown, was instantly killed Wednesday afternoon, when struck on the head by a log which rolled off a truck. An inquest will be held Saturday afternoon, at Hirst Funeral Chapel, Duncan.

$300 FOR SPORTS FUND

Luxton—More than $300, proceeds from a recent "Queen Contest" was turned over to the Belmont High School Council, for purchase of sports equipment and for improvement of the playing field, by Mrs. J. Poirier, manager of Miss Lorene Murray in the recent contest.

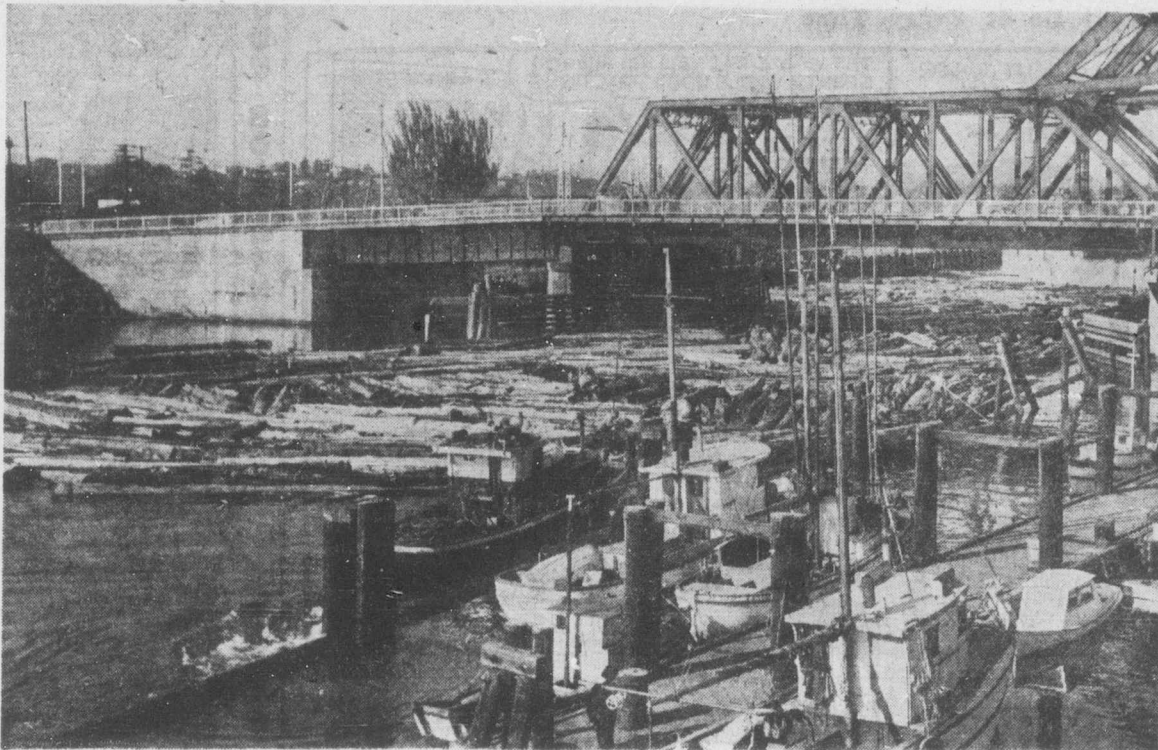

ANGELIC CHURCH RALLY

A rally, under the auspices of the Victoria Diocese of the Anglican Church, at Christ Church Memorial Hall next Wednesday, will consider, through the medium of movies, slides of local churches, and the spoken word, the tremendous need of expansion of the church's work locally, throughout Vancouver Island, and in the world.

Speeches will be made by Rev. B. O. G. Dixon, until recently the principal of St. Michael's Indian Residential School at Alert Bay; Rev. A. Cameron, in charge during the past summer of the West Coast Mission; Rev. J. F. Martin, St. Paul's Wayside Church; Rev. Capel Lutener, Port Alice and Quatsino Sound. Films showing the work of the Anglican Church in India and Japan will be shown. Rev. W. Hills will take part in a panel discussion with G. F. Gregory on Sunday Observance, and the films of Camp Columbia will be shown.

MONTREAL (CP) — Mayor Camillien Houde said Wednesday Premier Duplessis, Attorney-General of Quebec, had issued a preferred indictment against the three alleged slayers of two Montreal policemen in an East-End bank holdup.

The indictments will enable the department to take the case directly before the Court of King's Bench without having first to appear at a preliminary hearing.

LOG JAM TIES UP WATER TRAFFIC UNDER BRIDGE—Tugs pushed and tugged for two and one-half hours Wednesday before they succeeded in clearing the narrow passageway under Johnson Street Bridge for normal boat traffic when this boom of cedar logs became jammed. Boom was being towed from Ogden Point to the upper harbor when the unusual incident occurred at 11.30.

Oscar Levant Pens Original Rhapsody

An original rhapsody by Oscar Levant is included in the score of Warner Bros.' brilliant technicolor musical, "Romance on the High Seas," a Michael Curtiz production, now at the Atlas Theatre. Levant plays the composition in a night club sequence which figures in the plot development. Jack Carson, Janis Paige, Don DeFore and the sensational new comedienne, Doris Day, top the cast in this lively musical.

'Abie's Irish Rose' Showing At Rio

If he follows tradition, Richard Norris can look forward to no small measure of success on the screen, stage or radio. The good-looking actor is making his film bow as Abie in "Abie's Irish Rose," the United Artists release show at the Rio Theatre. This role has been a starting point for a number of successful performers.

On Broadway the original Abie was Wallace Ford, now a highly-successful film actor. George Brent, who also has done pretty well in pictures, was another Abie.

Roland Culver Makes 3-Shirt Landing

Roland Culver calls himself "the three-shirts-in-the-wind man" these days. That is because the shirts were the only extra articles of personal attire the noted British character actor had in hand recently.

Culver flew by transport plane from London to Hollywood to accept a featured role in Columbia's Technicolor musical, "Down to Earth," which stars Rita Hayworth and Larry Parks at the York Theatre. He couldn't take luggage with him, so he shipped two trunks of clothes by boat and carried three laundered shirts in a brief case.

The actor arrived at Columbia wearing a blue serge suit. After three weeks he was still wearing it, for it was his one and only!

'Buzzy' Henry As Indian Orphan

Ninety-four pounds of concentrated masculine energy, otherwise known as Robert Dee, "Buzzy" Henry, comprise Hollywood's latest juvenile aspirant to stardom. As the Indian orphan in Universal's "Wild Beauty," at the Plaza Theatre, heart-warming story of a boy's devotion to a horse, "Buzzy" has the kind of a screen role that's a natural. The picture was directed and produced by Wallace W. Fox.

'Johnny O'Clock' Real Melodrama

Columbia's "Johnny O'Clock," an up-to-the-minute melodrama about a gambler and his ladies, co-starring Dick Powell and Evelyn Keyes, is now at the Oak Bay Theatre. This story of one of the most amazing characters of the year has been directed by Robert Rossen for one of the most absorbing pictures of the year. A sterling supporting cast includes Lee J. Cobb, Ellen Drew, Nina Foch, S. Thomas Gomez and John Kellogg. Rossen wrote the screenplay, Edward G. Nealis produced; Milton Holmes was associate producer.

CAPITOL THEATRE

Jules Munshin, Broadway comedy star, who makes his film debut in Irving Berlin's "Easter Parade," holds an unusual record. He is the only man living ever to climb into the ring with Joe Louis and "fight" the world champion without once being hit. Furthermore, he "fought" approximately 150 rounds with the titleholder. Munshin landed his opportunity immediately after being discharged, when he went into the Broadway show, "Call Me Mister." He won the New York critics award for the best comedian of 1946 and the Donaldson award for the best stage performance by a new star for the year. "Easter Parade," now showing at the Capitol Theatre, stars Judy Garland, Fred Astaire, Ann Miller and Peter Lawford.

ODEON THEATRE

Newcastle-born Gibb McLaughlin, who plays Mr. Sowerberry, the obsequious undertaker, in Cineguild's screen version of "Oliver Twist," now being shown at the Odeon Theatre, is carrying on a family tradition. Forty years ago his sister-in-law, Nellie Bowman, played the part of Oliver in Beerbohm Tree's celebrated production at His Majesty's Theatre. His father, William Norton, the theatrical figure, who lived to be 97, was a friend of Dickens at the time he was writing "Oliver Twist" and was frequently seen at coffee parties with the novelist.

1,000 Attend Party For Y.M.C.A. Couple

LONDON (CP)—More than 1,000 guests and members of the London Central Y.M.C.A. Wednesday night held a leave-taking party for Mr. and Mrs. Frank Carpenter, retiring after 35 years' service with the association. They were secretary and matron, respectively, and were known to thousands of Canadians who in both world wars and in the years between made the hostel their temporary home.

ROYAL THEATRE

With Edmund Gwenn's assignment to the role of "The Professor" in Twentieth Century-Fox's new Technicolor hit "Apartment for Peggy," word out of Hollywood is that lightning has struck twice for the outstanding character actor. The role of the "Professor" is said to match in unusual character and appeal the part of "Kris Kringle" in "Miracle on 34th Street" for which he won his Academy Award.

Gwenn's current role in the film now at the Royal Theatre is, however, completely different from the one he played in "Miracle." In that picture, it was he who opened Maureen O'Hara and John Payne's eyes to a new meaning in life. In "Apartment for Peggy" he is the retired college professor who is blasted out of his shell of disillusionment by the gloriously uninhibited and determined wife of a student veteran. Jeanne Crain plays the title role.

Prospector Walks Back; Search Ends

CRANBERRY PORTAGE, Man. (CP)—An eight-day prospecting trip, during which he was the object of a search by air, land and water, has ended for Bert Smith, 67-year-old cook.

Smith was reported recovering today from the effects of exposure. He walked into a pulpwood camp 18 miles southwest of here Wednesday.

He said he ran into difficulties on the return leg of a prospecting trip to Nieso Lake, north of Cranberry Portage last Tuesday. He encountered a heavy fog on Lake Athapapuskow, and not knowing where he was, camped on the lake shore. His canoe, which had been insecurely moored, drifted off.

When dawn broke Wednesday Smith found he was on the mainland within walking distance of the camp. Residents of this area and R.C.M.P. from The Pas had conducted an extensive search for him believing he had been lost along the shores of Lake Athapapuskow.

Full-Length Movie Of R.C.M.P. Mooted

OTTAWA (CP)—Producer Sam Marks of Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer pictures, Hollywood, was here today to explore the possibility of making a feature-length movie on the Royal Canadian Mounted Police.

Also an arrival Wednesday was J. J. Fitzgibbons of Toronto, president of Famous Players Canadian Corporation.

Both officials are expected to call on government officers regarding a co-operative program for the production of U.S. films on Canadian soil and so assist the government in the conservation of U.S. dollars.
